CAP. 297. "Act" means the Labour Act, and other expressions, in particular the terms defined in section 65 of the said Act, shall have the meanings assigned to them in the said Act.

Application for licence. Schedule.

3. An application for a licence shall be made in writing to the Commissioner in Form A of the Schedule hereto and shall be supported by a recommendation of character of the applicant signed, in the case of a resident of Belize by a justice of the peace or minister of religion and, in the case of a non-resident by a consular officer or other person who may be acceptable to the Commissioner for this purpose.

Conditions of issue.

- 4. A licence shall be subject to-
 - (a) the general condition that no force or threat of force, coercion or misrepresentation of any kind shall be used in inducing a prospective worker to accept employment and that no payment in money or in kind or promises of such payment shall be made by the licensee to the worker as an inducement to accept employment; and
 - (b) such special conditions as may be endorsed upon it.

5. The licence shall be in the Form B of the Schedule hereto.

Form of licence. Schedule.

6. A fee of five dollars shall be paid for the licence and an additional fee of five dollars for any renewal thereof.

Fees.

7. Before issue of a licence there shall be lodged with the Commissioner a bond in the Form C of the Schedule hereto duly executed to the satisfaction of the Commissioner in the name of the applicant in the sum of one thousand dollars and two sureties in the sum of five hundred dollars each conditioned for his proper conduct as a licensee and for his strict compliance with the requirements of the Act and of these Regulations:

Form of bond. Schedule.

Provided that in cases where the applicant is the prospective employer or an association of prospective employers, the Commissioner may in his discretion waive execution of such a bond but without prejudice to execution of a bond as employer conditioned for the payment of wages due to persons recruited as provided in section 70 of the Act.

A licensee shall keep and at all times have duly posted at his place of business a register showing the following particulars for each worker recruited:

Register.

- Name in full; (a)
- Names and addresses of prospective employers; (b)
- (c) Date and place recruited;
- (d) Age;
- (e) Nationality;
- (f)Home address;
- (g) Next of kin;

- (h) Nature of employment to be given;
- (i) Wages offered;
- (j) Date and place of medical examination;
- (k) Advance (if any) granted; and
- (1) Date of arrival at place of employment.

Accounts.

9. A licensee shall keep a full and complete record of all disbursements made by him in connection with the recruitment of workers and of his receipts (if any) by way of remuneration for his services as a licensee. Such record shall be available for inspection at all reasonable times by a Labour Officer who may enter upon any buildings, premises or place for the purpose of examining such record.

Memorandum to be given to worker. Schedule. 10. A licensee shall supply each recruited worker with two copies of a memorandum in Form D of the Schedule hereto, duly attested by a Labour Officer; one copy shall be delivered by the worker to his employer and the other retained by the worker. A third copy shall be prepared by the licensee and lodged with the Labour Officer before whom the recruited worker is brought in accordance with section 75 of the Act:

Provided that in lieu of a memorandum in Form D the Commissioner may approve for any particular recruiter or employer some other document or combination of documents which serves the same purpose of identifying a worker and the terms and conditions of his employment freely accepted.

Transport.

11. (1) The vehicles, vessels or aircraft provided by the licensee for the transport of recruited workers and their families shall be in good condition and suitable for such transport.

THE SUBSIDIARY LAWS OF BELIZE

REVISED EDITION 2003

(2) All aircraft used for such transport shall be licensed in accordance with the Civil Aviation Act.

CAP. 239.

- (3) The licensee shall satisfy the Minister that each recruited worker to be transported is insured against accident or death during transportation. The amount of such insurance shall not be less than three thousand dollars.
- 12. Recruited workers travelling to the place of employment shall be provided by the employer or the licensee with suitable and sufficient accommodation to the satisfaction of the Minister of Labour, supplies of food and drinking water for use on the journey and, where circumstances require it, the necessary facilities for cooking.

Accommodation.

13. A licensee shall cause a worker recruited by him for employment outside Belize to be examined at the expense of the recruiter or the employer by a registered medical practitioner who shall certify as to the fitness of the recruited worker to undertake the journey to the place of employment and the work which he will be required to perform.

Medical examination.

14. No worker shall be recruited for employment outside Belize unless he shall have undergone such medical examination and have been certified as fit.

Fitness.

15. The registered medical practitioner shall sign a certificate substantially in Form E of the Schedule hereto in respect of each recruited worker examined by him and in his opinion fit to undertake the journey to the place of employment and the work which the recruited worker will be required to undertake. Such certificate shall be delivered to the Labour Officer before whom the recruited worker is brought in accordance with section 75 of the Act.

Certificate. Schedule.

16. The cost of the medical examination and any other expenses incidental thereto shall be paid by the recruiter or the employer.

Expenses.

the Government of Belize.

Limitation on advances.

17. A licensee may advance to a worker who is recruited by him for employment outside Belize a sum not exceeding six days wages for the purpose of meeting his petty expenses on the journey to the place of employment. Such an advance shall be made only in the presence and with the approval of the Labour Officer before whom the recruited worker is brought in accordance with the provisions of section 75 of the Act and who shall be satisfied that the terms of repayment are fair and reasonable. An advance made to such recruited worker otherwise than in accordance with this regulation may not be recovered by deduction from any wages, subsistence or other remuneration payable to the worker in connection with the employment for which he is recruited.

Attestation. Schedule.

18. The Labour Officer before whom any recruited worker is brought shall satisfy himself that the requirements of the Act and these Regulations have been complied with and shall thereupon complete the endorsement on Form D of the Schedule hereto and return two copies to the recruited worker.
