(2) No account of overtime pay shall be taken in calculating the wages of an employee for the purpose of-

- (a) any end of year payment under Part IIA;
- (b) any maternity leave pay under Part III;
- (c) any severance payment under Part VA;
- (ca) any long service payment under Part VB; (Added 76 of 1985 s. 2)
- (d) any sickness allowance under Part VII;
- (e) any holiday pay under Part VIII; or
- (f) any annual leave pay under Part VIIIA, unless the overtime pay is of a constant character or the monthly average of the overtime pay over a period of 12 months (or if not applicable, such shorter period of employment) immediately preceding the respective dates specified in subsections (2A) and (2B) is equivalent to or exceeds 20% of his average monthly wages during the same period. (Added 48 of 1984 s. 2. Amended 74 of 1997 s. 3)

(2A) In the calculation of the monthly average of the overtime pay under subsection (2), the date specified for the purpose of that subsection is-

- (a) in relation to any end of year payment under Part IIA, the expiry date of the payment period;
- (b) in relation to any maternity leave pay under Part III, the commencement date of maternity leave;
- (c) in relation to any severance payment under Part VA and any long service payment under Part VB-
 - (i) subject to subparagraph (ii), the relevant date;
 - (ii) where the employee's contract of employment is terminated by payment in lieu of notice in accordance with section 7, the date on which the termination takes effect;
- (d) in relation to any sickness allowance under Part VII, the first sickness day;
- (e) in relation to any holiday pay under Part VIII, the first day of the holiday; and
- (f) in relation to any annual leave pay under Part VIIIA, the first day of the annual leave. (Added 74 of 1997 s. 3)

(2B) Notwithstanding anything contained in subsection (2A), the date specified for the purpose of subsection (2) in relation to any termination of employment is-

(a) subject to paragraph (b), the relevant date;

(b) where the employee's contract of employment is terminated by payment in lieu of notice in accordance with section 7, the date on which the termination takes effect. (Added 74 of 1997 s. 3)

(3) Where an employee who has been employed under a continuous contract-

(a) is dismissed; or

(b) is laid off within the meaning of section 31E; or

(c) terminates his contract of employment in circumstances specified in section 10(aa) or 31R(1)(b); or

(d) dies in circumstances specified in section 31RA(1), and for any period of that contract he had not been paid his wages, or his full wages, by reason of any leave taken by him in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance or the Employees' Compensation Ordinance (Cap 282) or with the agreement of his employer, or by reason of his not being provided by his employer with work on any normal working day, then the employee shall be deemed, for the purposes of Parts VA and VB and notwithstanding any other provision of this Ordinance, to have been paid, for that period, his full wages under, and at the frequency required by, that contract as if he had continued in the normal course in the employment to which that contract relates, and any calculation under section 31G or 31V shall be made accordingly. (Replaced 62 of 1992 s. 2)

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 3

Meaning of continuous contract and onus of proof thereof VerDate:06/30/1997

(1) In this Ordinance, "continuous contract" (éÆç°ÆæÇâ^ç',,) means a contract of employment under which an employee is deemed by virtue of the provisions of the First Schedule to be in continuous employment.

(2) In any dispute as to whether a contract of employment is a continuous contract the onus of proving that it is not a continuous contract shall be on the employer.

(Added 5 of 1970 s. 4. Amended 71 of 1970 s. 2)

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 4

Application of Ordinance VerDate:06/30/1997

(1) Subject to subsection (2) and section 69, this Ordinance applies to every employee engaged under a contract of employment, to an employer of such employee and to a contract of employment between such employer and employee.

(2) Subject to Part IVA, this Ordinance does not apply- (Amended 51 of 1974 s. 2)

(a) (Repealed 41 of 1990 s. 3)

(b) to a person who is a member of the family of the proprietor of the business in which he is employed and who dwells in the same dwelling as the proprietor;

(c) to an employee as defined in the Contracts for Employment Outside Hong Kong Ordinance (Cap 78); (Amended 33 of 1992 s. 15)

(d) to a person who is serving under a crew agreement within the meaning of the Merchant Shipping (Seafarers) Ordinance (Cap 478), or on board a ship which is not registered in Hong Kong. (Replaced 44 of 1995 s. 143)

(e) (Repealed 8 of 1976 s. 49)

(2A) This Ordinance shall not apply to contracts of apprenticeship registered under the Apprenticeship Ordinance (Cap 47) except to the extent provided in that Ordinance. (Added 8 of 1976 s. 49)

(3) For the avoidance of doubt it is hereby declared that the provisions of section 5(3) shall not apply to any contract of employment made before 1 April 1965.

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 4A

Authorization of public officers VerDate:06/30/1997

The Commissioner may in writing authorize any public officer or class of public officer to exercise or perform any or all of the powers, functions or duties conferred or imposed on the Commissioner under this Ordinance. (Added 10 of 1980 s. 2)

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 4B

Chief Executive may give directions VerDate:07/01/1997

Adaptation amendments retroactively made - see 56 of 2000 s. 3

(1) The Chief Executive may give such directions as he thinks fit, either generally or in any particular case, with respect to the exercise or performance by any public officer of any powers, functions or duties under this Ordinance.

(2) A public officer shall, in the exercise or performance of his powers, functions or duties under this Ordinance, comply with any directions given by the Chief Executive under subsection (1).

(Added 10 of 1980 s. 2. Amended 56 of 2000 s. 3)

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 5

Duration of contracts of employment VerDate:06/30/1997

PART II

CONTRACTS OF EMPLOYMENT

(1) Every contract of employment, which is a continuous contract, shall, in the absence of any express agreement to the contrary, be deemed to be a contract for 1 month renewable from month to month.

(2) Notwithstanding that it is proved that a contract of employment is for a period in excess of 1 month such contract shall be deemed to be a contract for 1 month renewable from month to month unless the contract is evidenced in writing signed by each of the parties thereto.

(3) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, a contract of employment entered into by a manual worker for a period of 6 months or more or for a number of working days equivalent to 6 months or more shall be deemed to be a contract for 1 month renewable from month to month.

(4) Where any contract of employment for a period in excess of 1 month is deemed by virtue of the provisions of subsection (2) or (3) to be a contract from month to month the wages per month shall be such proportion of the total wages agreed under the contract as 1 month bears to the agreed duration of the contract.

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 6

Termination of contract by notice VerDate:04/12/2001

"month" (æœ^)

(1) Subject to subsections (2), (2A), (2B), (3) and (3A) and sections 15 and 33, either party to a contract of employment may at any time terminate the contract by giving to the other party notice, orally or in writing, of his intention to do so. (Amended 5 of 1970 s. 5; 57 of 1983 s. 2; 48 of 1984 s. 4; 55 of 1987 s. 2; 103 of 1995 s. 2; 7 of 2001 s. 2)

(2) The length of notice required to terminate a contract of employment shall be-

(a) in the case of a contract which is deemed by virtue of the provisions of section 5 to be a contract for 1 month renewable from month to month and which does not make provision for the length of notice required to terminate the contract, not less than 1 month; (Amended 44 of 1971 s. 2)

(b) in the case of a contract which is deemed by virtue of the provisions of section 5 to be a contract for 1 month renewable from month to month and which makes provision for the length of notice required to terminate the contract, the agreed period, but not less than 7 days; (Added 44 of 1971 s. 2)

(c) in every other case, the agreed period, but not less than 7 days in the case of a continuous contract.

(2A) Without prejudice to section 41D, annual leave to which an employee is entitled under section 41AA shall not be included under subsection (2) in the length of notice required to terminate a contract of employment. (Added 48 of 1984 s. 4. Amended 53 of 1990 s. 5)

(2B) The period of maternity leave to which a female employee is entitled under section 12 shall not be included under subsection (2) in the length of notice required to terminate a contract of employment. (Added 55 of 1987 s. 2)

(3) Where in any contract of employment, whether in writing or oral, it has been expressly agreed that the employment is on probation and the contract does not make provision for the length of notice required for its termination such contract may be terminated- (Amended 44 of 1971 s. 2)

(a) by either party at any time during the first month of such employment without notice or payment in lieu;

(b) by either party at any time after the first month of such employment by giving to the other party notice of not less than 7 days. (Amended 48 of 1984 s. 4)

(3A) Where in any contract of employment, whether in writing or oral, it has been expressly agreed that the employment is on probation and the contract makes provision for the length of notice required for its termination such contract may be terminated-

(a) notwithstanding the length of notice provided for in the contract, by either party at any time during the first month of such employment without notice or payment in lieu;

(b) by either party at any time after the first month of such employment by giving to the other party notice of the agreed period, but not less than 7 days. (Added 48 of 1984 s. 4)

(4) For the purposes of this section the expression "month" means a period of time commencing on the day when notice of termination of a contract of employment is given or when employment begins, as the case may be, and ending at the end of the day before the corresponding date in the following month or, where there is no corresponding date in the following month or where the commencing day is the last day of a month, at the end of the last day of the following month.

Termination of contract by payment in lieu of notice VerDate:04/12/2001

(1) Subject to sections 15 and 33, either party to a contract of employment may at any time terminate the contract without notice by agreeing to pay to the other party a sum equal to the amount of wages which would have accrued to the employee during the period of notice required by section 6. (Amended 44 of 1971 s. 3; 57 of 1983 s. 3; 103 of 1995 s. 2; 7 of 2001 s. 3)

(2) Either party to a contract of employment, having given proper notice in accordance with section 6, may at any time thereafter terminate the contract by agreeing to pay to the other party such proportion of the sum referred to in subsection (1) as is proportionate to the period between the termination of the contract and the time when the notice given would have expired. (Amended 44 of 1971 s. 3)

(3) In the case of an employee whose remuneration is calculated by the piece or task the amount of wages which would have accrued to such employee during the period of notice referred to in subsection (1) shall be deemed to be the amount of wages earned by the employee during the equivalent period immediately prior to the giving of the notice or, if for any reason it is impracticable to compute the amount in this manner, it may be calculated by reference to the amount earned during such equivalent period by a person in the same trade or occupation at the same work in the same district.

(4) For the purposes of this section, and notwithstanding any other provision of this Ordinance, the term "wages" -

(a) includes overtime pay of a constant character or the monthly average of which over a period of 12 months (or if not applicable, such shorter period of employment) immediately preceding the date on which the termination takes effect is equivalent to or exceeds 20% of his monthly average wages during the same period;

(b) except as provided in paragraph (a), shall be deemed not to include overtime pay. (Replaced 74 of 1997 s. 4)

"wages" (â·¥è³†)

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 8

Saving of rights VerDate:06/30/1997

Nothing in section 6 or 7 shall be taken-

(a) to prevent either party to a contract of employment from waiving, at the time notice is required to be given for the purposes of section 6(2), (3) or (3A), his right to notice or to payment in lieu of notice; (Amended 48 of 1984 s. 5)

(b) to affect the right of a party to a contract of employment to terminate the contract without notice or payment in lieu under section 9, 10 or 11(2).

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 8A

Damages for wrongful termination of contract VerDate:06/30/1997

(1) Without prejudice to section 9, 10 or 11(2), where a contract of employment is terminated otherwise than in accordance with section 6 or 7, a sum equal to the amount of wages which would have accrued to the employee during the period of notice required by section 6 shall be payable by the party terminating the contract to the other party.

(2) Without prejudice to section 9, 10 or 11(2), where a party to a contract of employment, having given proper notice in accordance with section 6 thereafter terminates the contract before the expiry of the period of notice otherwise than in accordance with section 7, such proportion of the sum equal to the amount of wages which would have accrued to the employee during the period of notice as is proportionate to the period between the termination of the contract and the time when the notice given would have expired shall be payable by the party terminating the contract to the other party.
(Added 14 of 1975 s. 2)

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 9

Termination of contract without notice by employer VerDate:07/07/2000

(1) An employer may terminate a contract of employment without notice or payment in lieu- (Amended 51 of 2000 s. 2)

(a) if an employee, in relation to his employment-

(i) wilfully disobeys a lawful and reasonable order;

(ii) misconducts himself, such conduct being inconsistent with the due and faithful discharge of his duties;

(iii) is guilty of fraud or dishonesty; or

(iv) is habitually neglectful in his duties; or

(b) on any other ground on which he would be entitled to terminate the contract without notice at common law.

(2) The fact that an employee takes part in a strike does not entitle his employer to terminate under subsection (1) the employee's contract of employment. (Added 51 of 2000 s. 2)

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 10

Termination of contract without notice by employee VerDate:06/30/1997

An employee may terminate his contract of employment without notice or payment in lieu-

(a) if he reasonably fears physical danger by violence or disease such as was not contemplated by his contract of employment expressly or by necessary implication;

(aa) if-

(i) he has been employed under the contract for not less than 5 years; and (Amended 41 of 1990 s. 4; 62 of 1992 s. 3)

(ii) by a certificate in the form specified by the Commissioner under section 49 and issued by a registered medical practitioner, he is certified as being permanently unfit for a particular type of work specified in the certificate for a reason or reasons stated therein; and (Amended 68 of 1990 s. 24; 61 of 1993 s. 3)

(iii) he is engaged in that type of work under the contract; (Added 52 of 1988 s. 4)

(b) if he is subjected to ill-treatment by the employer; or

(c) on any other ground on which he would be entitled to terminate the contract without notice at common law.

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 10A

Deemed termination of contract under section 7 VerDate:06/30/1997

(1) Without prejudice to the rights of an employee under common law, an employee may terminate his contract of employment without notice or payment in lieu of notice if any wages are not paid within one month from the day on which they become due to him under section 23.

(2) Where a contract of employment is terminated under subsection

(1), the contract shall be deemed to be terminated by the employer in accordance with section 7 and the employer shall be deemed to have agreed to pay to the employee the sum specified in section 7.

(Added 74 of 1997 s. 5)

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 11

Suspension from employment in certain cases VerDate:06/30/1997

(1) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Ordinance or of any other law, an employer may without notice or payment in lieu suspend from employment any employee for a period not exceeding 14 days-

(a) as a disciplinary measure for any reason for which the employer could have terminated the contract of employment under section 9;

(b) pending a decision by the employer as to whether or not he will exercise his right to terminate the contract of employment under section 9; or

(c) pending the outcome of any criminal proceedings against the employee arising out of or connected with his employment:
Provided that where such criminal proceedings are not concluded within the period of 14 days such suspension may be extended till the conclusion of the criminal proceedings.

(2) An employee who is suspended from employment under subsection

(1) may at any time during the period of his suspension, notwithstanding sections 6 and 7, terminate his contract of employment without notice or payment in lieu.

(3) Without prejudice to the provisions of subsection (1), an employer may lay-off an employee for such periods as are expressly agreed in, or may be implied from, the contract of employment.

(4) Notwithstanding subsection (3), the period of lay-off shall in no case exceed-

(a) a total of half of the total number of normal working days in any period of 4 consecutive weeks; or

(b) a total of one-third of the total number of normal working days in any period of 26 consecutive weeks. (Added 41 of 1990 s. 5)

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 11A
Interpretation VerDate:06/30/1997

PART IIA

END OF YEAR PAYMENT

In this Part, unless the context otherwise requires-

"end of year payment" (á¹´çµ,é...-é†‘) means any annual payment (whether described as "thirteenth month payment", "fourteenth month payment", "double pay", "end of year bonus" or otherwise) or annual bonus of a contractual nature, but does not include any annual payment or any annual bonus, or any proportion thereof, which is of a gratuitous nature or which is payable only at the discretion of the employer; (Amended 74 of 1997 s. 6)

"full month's wages" (á...·æœ^á·¥è³†) means-

(a) in the case of an employee whose wages are computed by reference to a monthly rate, his monthly rate of pay; and

(b) in any other case, a sum equivalent to the average daily wage earned by the employee multiplied by 26, and for the purposes of this paragraph the average daily wage shall be the average of the daily wages earned by the employee on each day on which he worked during every complete wage period, comprising not less than 28 days and not more than 31 days, immediately preceding or expiring on-

(i) the day on which the end of year payment becomes due under section 11E(1) or (2); or

(ii) the day on which the proportion of the end of year payment becomes due under section 11F(3) or (4);

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 11AA

Presumption VerDate:06/30/1997

(1) It shall be presumed that an annual payment or annual bonus is not of a gratuitous nature and is not payable only at the discretion of the employer unless there is a written term or condition in the contract of employment to the contrary.

(2) For the avoidance of doubt, it is hereby declared that subsection (1) shall not apply to any contract of employment made before the commencement of this section.

(Added 74 of 1997 s. 7)

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 11B

Application of Part IIA VerDate:06/30/1997

(1) Subject to any agreement to the contrary and to subsection (2), this Part shall apply to an employee employed under a continuous contract if an end of year payment is payable by the employer to that employee by virtue of a term or condition (whether written or oral, express or implied) of the contract of employment.

(2) In the case of an employee to whom this Part applies, any term or condition of the contract of employment which purports to prevent the payment under section 11F of a proportion of the end of year payment shall be void.

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 11C

Payment period VerDate:06/30/1997

The payment period in respect of which an end of year payment is payable under this Part shall be-

(a) the payment period specified in that behalf in the contract of employment; or

(b) if a payment period is not so specified, a lunar year.
(Part IIA added 48 of 1984 s. 6)

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 11D

Amount of end of year payment VerDate:06/30/1997

An end of year payment payable to an employee to whom this Part applies who has been employed by the same employer for the whole of a payment period shall be-

(a) the end of year payment specified in that behalf in the contract of employment; or

(b) if an end of year payment is not so specified, a sum equivalent to a full month's wages of the employee.

(Part IIA added 48 of 1984 s. 6)

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 11E

Time of payment of end of year payment VerDate:06/30/1997

(1) An end of year payment payable to an employee to whom this Part applies in respect of a payment period shall become due to the employee-

(a) subject to subsection (2), on the day specified in that behalf in the contract of employment; or

(b) if a day is not so specified, on the last day of the payment period, and shall be paid as soon as is practicable but in any case not later than 7 days after that day but nothing in this section shall be construed as preventing the payment of the end of year payment at any time before that day.

(2) Where the contract of employment of an employee to whom this Part applies who has been employed for the whole of a payment period is terminated after the expiry of the payment period but before the end of year payment becomes due on the day specified in the contract, the end of year payment shall, notwithstanding that a day is so specified, become due to the employee-

(a) on the day on which the contract of employment terminates; or

(b) in the case of an end of year payment that falls to be calculated by reference to any profits of the employer, on the day on which the profits of the employer are ascertained, and shall be paid as soon as is practicable but in any case not later than 7 days after that day.

(Part IIA added 48 of 1984 s. 6)

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 11F

Proportion of the end of year payment VerDate:04/12/2001

(1) Subject to subsections (1A) and (1B), where, in the case of an employee to whom this Part applies who has not been employed by the same employer for the whole of a payment period but has been so employed for a period of not less than 3 months in the payment period- (Amended 74 of 1997 s. 8; 7 of 2001 s. 4)

(a) the contract of employment is terminated-

(i) at any time during the payment period; or

(ii) on the expiry of the payment period; or (Replaced 7 of 2001 s. 4)

(b) the employee continues to be employed by the employer after the expiry of the payment period, the employee shall be paid a proportion, calculated in accordance with subsection (2), of the end of year payment that would have been payable under this Part if he had been employed by the same employer for the whole of the payment period.

(1A) If it is a term or condition of a contract of employment that the employee is on probation, the period of such probation or a period of 3 months, whichever is the shorter, shall be excluded from the calculation of the 3 months' period under subsection (1). (Added 74 of 1997 s. 8)

(1B) Subsection (1)(a) shall not apply where a contract of employment is terminated-

(a) by the employee (except such a termination which is in accordance with section 10); or

(b) in accordance with section 9. (Added 7 of 2001 s. 4)

(2) The proportion of the end of year payment payable under subsection (1) shall be-

(a) the proportion specified in that behalf in the contract of employment; or

(b) if a proportion is not so specified, the sum which bears the same proportion to a full month's wages of the employee as his period of service under the contract of employment in the payment period bears to that payment period.

(3) The proportion of the end of year payment payable under subsection (1) shall become due to the employee-

(a) under paragraph (a) of that subsection-

(i) on the day on which the contract of employment terminates; or

(ii) in the case of a proportion of an end of year payment that falls to be calculated by reference to any profits of the employer, on the day on which the profits of the employer are ascertained; or

(b) under paragraph (b) of that subsection-

(i) subject to subsection (4), on the day specified in the contract of employment as the day on which the end of year payment becomes due; or

(ii) if a day is not so specified, on the last day of the payment period, and shall be paid as soon as is practicable but in any case not later than 7 days after that day but nothing in this subsection shall be construed as preventing the payment of the proportion of the end of year payment at any time before that day.

(4) Where the contract of employment of an employee to whom subsection (1)(b) applies is terminated after the expiry of the payment period but before the end of year payment becomes due on the day specified in the contract, the proportion of the end of year payment payable under subsection (1) shall, notwithstanding that a day is so specified, become due to the employee-

(a) on the day on which the contract of employment terminates; or

(b) in the case of a proportion of an end of year payment that falls to be calculated by reference to any profits of the employer, on the day on which the profits of the employer are ascertained, and shall be paid as soon as is practicable but in any case not later than 7 days after that day.

(Part IIA added 48 of 1984 s. 6)

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 12

Maternity leave VerDate:06/30/1997

(1) A female employee employed under a continuous contract immediately before taking any leave under this Part shall be entitled to maternity leave under this Part. (Replaced 73 of 1997 s. 3)

(2) Maternity leave shall be the aggregate of-

(a) a continuous period of 10 weeks from and inclusive of-

(i) the date of commencement of maternity leave as determined under section 12AA; or

(ii) the actual date of confinement, if confinement occurs before the date of commencement mentioned in subparagraph (i);

(b) a further period equal to the number of days, if any, beginning on the day after the expected date of confinement up to and including the actual date of confinement; such further period of leave is to be taken immediately following the period of leave under paragraph (a); and

(c) a further period, not exceeding 4 weeks, on grounds of illness or disability arising out of the pregnancy or confinement. (Replaced 73 of 1997 s. 3)

(3) The period of maternity leave under subsection (2)(c) may be taken-

(a) wholly or in part immediately before the period mentioned in subsection (2)(a);

(b) wholly or in part immediately after the period mentioned in subsection (2)(a) or (b), as the case may be. (Replaced 73 of 1997 s. 3)

(4) Before taking leave, a female employee who intends to take any period of maternity leave under subsection (2) shall give notice of her pregnancy and of her intention to take maternity leave to her employer after her pregnancy has been confirmed by a medical certificate; the presentation of a medical certificate to the employer by the female employee confirming her pregnancy shall be a notice for the purpose of this subsection. (Replaced 73 of 1997 s. 3)

(4A) A female employee who has given notice under subsection (4) shall, if her pregnancy ceases otherwise than by reason of confinement, give notice of such cessation of pregnancy to her employer as soon as is reasonably practicable. (Added 55 of 1987 s. 3)

(5) If her confinement takes place-

(a) before notice under subsection (4) is given; or

(b) after notice under subsection (4) is given but before the commencement of the period of maternity leave under subsection (2)(a)(i), the female employee shall, within 7 days of her confinement, give notice to her employer of the date of confinement and of her intention to take any period of maternity leave under subsection (2)(a). (Replaced 73 of 1997 s. 3)

(6) A female employee who gives notice under subsection (4) shall, if so required by her employer, produce a medical certificate specifying the expected date of confinement. (Replaced 73 of 1997 s. 3)

(7) A female employee who gives notice under subsection (5) shall, if so required by her employer, produce a medical certificate specifying the date of confinement. (Replaced 73 of 1997 s. 3)

(7A) A female employee who may take any period of maternity leave under subsection (2)(b) shall, if so required by her employer, produce a medical certificate specifying the date of confinement. (Added 73 of 1997 s. 3)

(8) A female employee who intends to take any period of maternity leave under subsection (2)(c) shall give notice to that effect to her employer and shall, if so required by her employer, produce a medical certificate certifying as to the illness or disability. (Amended 73 of 1997 s. 3)

(9) (Repealed 73 of 1997 s. 3)

(10) The continuity of employment of a female employee shall not be treated as broken by her taking maternity leave. (Added 22 of 1981 s. 3)

(11) For the avoidance of doubt it is declared that maternity leave is, and shall be granted, in addition to annual leave to which a female employee is entitled under this Ordinance and that any rest day or holiday that falls due during maternity leave shall be counted as part of the maternity leave and shall not give rise to any entitlement to an additional or other rest day or holiday or to holiday pay in the case of a female employee who is paid maternity leave pay for that holiday; and where no maternity leave pay is paid to the female employee for that holiday she shall be paid holiday pay for that holiday. (Added 22 of 1981 s. 3. Amended 48 of 1984 s. 7)

PART III

MATERNITY PROTECTION

In this Part, unless the context otherwise requires-

"pregnant employee" (æ†·â•âf±â“;i) means a female employee whose pregnancy has been confirmed by a medical certificate.

(Added 73 of 1997 s. 2)

"pregnant employee" (æ†·â•âf±â“;i)

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 12AA
Commencement of maternity leave VerDate:06/30/1997

(1) With the agreement of her employer, a pregnant employee may decide on the date of commencement of her 10 weeks maternity leave, provided that such date is within a period of not less than 2 weeks before, and not more than 4 weeks before, the expected date of confinement.

(2) If the employee does not exercise her option to decide on the date of commencement in subsection (1), or if she fails to secure her employer's agreement to her proposed leave schedule, the date of commencement of maternity leave shall be 4 weeks immediately before the expected date of confinement.

(Added 73 of 1997 s. 4)

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 13

Authority to issue medical certificates VerDate:06/30/1997

(1) A medical certificate for the purposes of section 12(4), (6),

(7) or (7A) or 12AA shall be issued by-

(a) a registered medical practitioner; or

(b) notwithstanding section 16 of the Midwives Registration Ordinance (Cap 162), a midwife registered under section 8, or deemed to be registered under section 25, of that Ordinance.

(2) A medical certificate for the purposes of section 12(8) or 15AA shall be issued by a registered medical practitioner.

(Amended 73 of 1997 s. 5)

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 14

Payment for maternity leave VerDate:06/30/1997

(1) A female employee shall not be entitled to wages in respect of the period of her maternity leave except as provided in this section or as provided in her contract of employment if such contract provides for paid maternity leave on terms better than in this section.

(2) An employer shall pay a female employee maternity leave pay for the period of maternity leave taken by her and to which she is entitled under section 12(2)(a) if she- (Amended 73 of 1997 s. 6)

(a) has been employed by that employer under a continuous contract for a period of not less than 40 weeks immediately before the date of her commencement of maternity leave as determined under section 12AA;

(Amended 5 of 1995 s. 4; 73 of 1997 s. 6)

(b) has given notice under section 12(4) or (5);

(c) has complied with any requirement by her employer under section 12(6) or (7); and

(d) (Repealed 73 of 1997 s. 6)

(3) Maternity leave pay payable under this section shall be calculated-

(a) in the case of a female employee whose wages are computed by reference to a monthly rate, at four-fifths of her monthly rate of pay; and

(b) in any other case, at four-fifths of the average daily wage earned by the female employee, and for the purposes of this paragraph the average daily wage shall be the average of the daily wages earned by the female employee on each day on which she worked during every complete wage period, comprising not less than 28 days and not more than 31 days, immediately preceding or expiring on the commencement of her maternity leave: (Amended 66 of 1995 s. 2)

Provided that in a case to which this paragraph applies maternity leave pay shall not be payable in respect of a day on which the female employee would not have worked had she not been on maternity leave. (Replaced 48 of 1984 s. 8)

(4) Maternity leave pay under this section shall be paid by an employer on the same day and in the same manner as he would have been required to pay wages to the female employee if she had not taken maternity leave and had continued in his employ.

(5) A female employee who, without the prior permission of her employer, works for another employer during any period of maternity leave under section 12(2)(a) shall forfeit her entitlement to maternity leave pay during that period of maternity leave. (Amended 73 of 1997 s. 6)

(6) (Repealed 73 of 1997 s. 6)
(Replaced 22 of 1981 s. 4)

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 15

Prohibition against termination of employment VerDate:04/12/2001

(1) Subject to subsections (1A) and (1B)-

(a) after a pregnant employee has served notice of pregnancy on her employer, the employer shall not terminate her continuous contract of employment otherwise than in accordance with section 9 during the period from the date on which her pregnancy is confirmed by a medical certificate to the date on which she is due to return to work on the expiry of her maternity leave or the date of cessation of pregnancy (otherwise than by reason of confinement);

(b) if a pregnant employee has served such notice on her employer immediately after being informed of the termination of her contract of employment where the termination was made otherwise than in accordance with section 9 by her employer, the employer shall immediately withdraw the termination or notice of termination in which event the termination or notice of termination shall be treated as if it had not taken place.

(Replaced 7 of 2001 s. 5)

(1A) Where in a contract of employment of a pregnant employee, whether in writing or oral, it has been expressly agreed that the employment is on probation, subsection (1) shall not prevent the termination by an employer of such contract for reasons other than pregnancy during the period of probation if the period does not exceed 12 weeks, or during the first 12 weeks of probation if the period of probation exceeds 12 weeks. (Replaced 73 of 1997 s. 7)

(1B) An employer who terminates the continuous contract of employment of a pregnant employee shall be taken for the purposes of subsection (1)(a) or (b) to terminate the contract otherwise than in accordance with section 9-

(a) unless the contrary is proved; or

(b) subject to subsection (1C), unless the employer proves that-

(i) he purported to terminate the contract in accordance with that section; and

(ii) at the time of such termination, he reasonably believed that he had a ground to do so. (Added 7 of 2001 s. 5)

(1C) Subsection (1B)(b) shall not apply in the case of civil proceedings. (Added 7 of 2001 s. 5)

(2) An employer who contravenes subsection (1)(a) or (b) shall be liable to pay to the female employee- (Amended 7 of 2001 s. 5)

(a) the sum which would have been payable if the contract had been terminated by the employer under section 7 provided that she has not received any such payment under that section; (Amended 73 of 1997 s. 7)

(b) a further sum equivalent to the amount of wages which would have accrued to the employee during a period of 1 month; and (Amended 73 of 1997 s. 7)

(c) where the employee is or would have been entitled to maternity leave pay, maternity leave pay for 10 weeks. (Added 22 of 1981 s. 5)

(3) In the case of a female employee whose remuneration is calculated by the piece or task the amount of wages which would have accrued to the employee during the period of 1 month referred to in subsection (2)(b) shall be deemed to be- (Amended 73 of 1997 s. 7)

(a) if the contravention of subsection (1) occurs before the commencement of maternity leave, the amount of wages earned by the employee during the equivalent period immediately prior to the breach of the contract; or

(b) if the contravention of subsection (1) occurs after the commencement of maternity leave, or if for any reason it is impracticable to compute the amount under paragraph (a), the amount of wages earned during the equivalent period by a female employee in the same trade or occupation at the same work in the same district. (Amended 48 of 1984 s. 9)

(4) Any employer who contravenes subsection (1)(a) or (b) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine at level 6. (Replaced 7 of 2001 s. 5)

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 15A

Offences VerDate:06/30/1997

(1) Any employer who fails to-

(a) grant maternity leave;

(b) pay maternity leave pay in accordance with section 14; or
(Amended 5 of 1995 s. 5)

(c) pay sickness allowance under section 33(3C), shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine at level 5. (Amended 24 of 1988 s. 2; 103 of 1995 s. 4)

(2) Any employer who, without any reasonable excuse, fails to comply with-

(a) the requirements under section 15AA(2); or

(b) the determination made by the Commissioner under section 15AA(6), shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine at level 5. (Replaced 73 of 1997 s. 9)
(Added 22 of 1981 s. 6)

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 15AA

Prohibition of assignment of heavy, hazardous or harmful work VerDate:06/30/1997

(1) A pregnant employee may, on producing a medical certificate with an opinion as to her unfitness to handle heavy materials, or to work in places where gas injurious to pregnancy is generated, or to do other work injurious to pregnancy, request her employer to refrain from giving her such work during her pregnancy period.

(2) On receipt of a request under subsection (1), the employer may not allocate to the employee the work specified in the medical certificate and, if the employee is already performing such work, the employer shall remove her from such work as soon as practicable but in any case not later than 14 days after the date of the receipt of the request under subsection

(1) notwithstanding that-

(a) the result of the medical examination referred to in subsection

(3); or

(b) the determination of the Commissioner in subsection (6), may be pending.

(3) The employer may, at his own expense, arrange for the employee to attend another medical examination by a registered medical practitioner to obtain a second opinion as to her fitness to undertake the work at issue.

(4) The employer shall give the employee at least 48 hours' notice of the examination under subsection (3) which is to be carried out within a period of 14 days after the date of the receipt of the employee's request made under subsection (1).

(5) If the second medical opinion provides that the employee is fit to do the specified work referred to in subsection (1) or if the employee refuses to attend the medical examination as arranged by the employer under subsection (3), the employer may refer the employee's request made under subsection (1) to the Commissioner; the Commissioner shall take appropriate action, including seeking further medical advice, to assist him in bringing about a determination.

(6) When the Commissioner receives the employer's reference under subsection (5), he may make a determination to-

(a) uphold the employee's request;

(b) rule that the employee's request is not supported;

(c) make such other rulings as he considers reasonable.

(7) The employer and the employee concerned in the reference shall comply with any determination made by the Commissioner.

(8) Any change in the earnings of the employee as a result of her transfer from heavy, hazardous or harmful work in accordance with this section, shall not affect the basis for calculating payment for termination of employment under section 15(2) or payment for maternity leave under this Part, and any such payment shall be calculated on the basis of the wages earned by the employee immediately before the transfer from heavy, hazardous or harmful work in accordance with this section; section 14(3) shall be construed accordingly.

(Added 73 of 1997 s. 8)

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 15B
Records VerDate:06/30/1997

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 17
Grant of rest days VerDate:06/30/1997

(1) Subject to the provisions of this Part, every employee who has been employed by the same employer under a continuous contract shall be granted not less than 1 rest day in every period of 7 days. (Amended 71 of 1976 s. 3)

(2) Rest days shall be in addition to any statutory holiday, or alternative holiday or substituted holiday, to which an employee is entitled under section 39. (Replaced 39 of 1973 s. 3)

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 18
Appointment of rest days VerDate:06/30/1997

(1) Rest days shall be appointed by an employer and he may appoint different rest days for different employees. (Amended 71 of 1976 s. 4)

(2) Subject to subsection (4), every employer shall, before the commencement of every month, inform each employee orally or in writing of his rest days in that month.

(3) The provisions of subsection (2) shall be deemed to be complied with if an employer exhibits in a conspicuous place in the place of employment and for so long as it applies a roster showing the days appointed to be rest days for each employee during the month.

(4) Subsection (2) shall not apply where rest days are appointed on fixed days in each period of 7 days on a regular basis. (Amended 71 of 1976 s. 4)

(5) An employer may, with the consent of his employee, substitute for any rest day appointed under this section some other rest day-

(a) within the same month and before the rest day so appointed; or

(b) within the period of 30 days next following the rest day so appointed.

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 19
Compulsory work on rest days VerDate:06/30/1997

(1) Subject to subsection (2), no employer shall require an employee to work on any of his rest days.

(2) An employer may require an employee to work on his rest day if it is necessary to do so by reason of a breakdown of machinery or plant or other unforeseen emergency of any nature.

(3) An employer shall substitute for any rest day on which an employee is required to work under subsection (2) some other rest day within the period of 30 days next following, notice of which shall be given to the employee within 48 hours after the employee is so required to work.

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 20
Voluntary work on rest days VerDate:06/30/1997

Rights of employees in respect of trade union membership and activities VerDate:10/31/1997

(1) Every employee shall as between himself and his employer have the following rights-

(a) the right to be or to become a member or an officer of a trade union registered under the Trade Unions Ordinance (Cap 332);

(b) where he is a member or an officer of any such trade union, the right, at any appropriate time, to take part in the activities of the trade union;

(c) the right to associate with other persons for the purpose of forming or applying for the registration of a trade union in accordance with the provisions of the Trade Unions Ordinance (Cap 332); (Amended 101 of 1997 s. 26)

*(d) (Repealed 135 of 1997 s. 14)

(2) Any employer, or any person acting on behalf of an employer, who-

(a) prevents or deters, or does any act calculated to prevent or deter, an employee from exercising any of the rights conferred on him by subsection (1); or

(b) terminates the contract of employment of, penalizes, or otherwise discriminates against, an employee by reason of his exercising any such right, shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine at level 6. (Amended 24 of 1988 s. 2; 103 of 1995 s. 5)

(3) In this section-

"appropriate time" (é©ç•¶æ™,é-“) means, in relation to an employee taking part in any activities of a trade union, time which either-

(a) is outside his working hours; or

(b) is a time within his working hours at which, in accordance with arrangements agreed with or consent given by or on behalf of his employer, it is permissible for him to take part in those activities;

"working hours" (å·¥ä½œæ™,é-“) means, in relation to an employee, any time when, in accordance with his contract with his employer, he is required to be at work.

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 22

Wage period VerDate:06/30/1997

PART V

PAYMENT OF WAGES

The wage period in respect of which wages are payable under a contract of employment shall, until the contrary is proved, be deemed to be 1 month.

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 23

Time of payment of wages VerDate:06/30/1997

Wages shall become due on the expiry of the last day of the wage period and shall be paid as soon as is practicable but in any case not later than 7 days thereafter.

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 24

Payment on completion VerDate:06/30/1997

Wages of an employee on completion of his contract of employment and any other sum payable in respect of his contract shall be due to him on the day of the completion of the contract and shall be paid as soon as is practicable but in any case not later than 7 days thereafter.

Payment on termination VerDate:04/12/2001

(1) Subject to section 31O, where a contract of employment is terminated any sum due to the employee shall be paid to him as soon as is practicable and in any case not later than 7 days after the day of termination. (Amended 44 of 1971 s. 4; 67 of 1974 s. 4)

(2) The sum referred to in subsection (1) shall be-

(a) the equivalent of the amount earned by the employee for work done over the period commencing on the expiry of his wage period next preceding the time of termination up to that time;

(b) the sum (if any) payable under sections 7, 15(2) and 33(4BA); (Amended 57 of 1983 s. 4; 76 of 1985 s. 3; 103 of 1995 s. 7; 7 of 2001 s. 6)

(ba) any long service payment due to the employee; and (Added 76 of 1985 s. 3. Amended L.N. 34 of 1990)

(c) any other sum due to the employee in respect of his contract of employment.

(3) In addition to any deduction which may be made under section 32, and subject to any order made by a court, an employer may deduct from any sum payable under subsection (1) to an employee who terminates his employment otherwise than under section 6, 7 or 10 such sum as the employee would have been liable to pay if he had terminated his employment under section 7. (Replaced 44 of 1971 s. 4. Amended 14 of 1975 s. 3; 48 of 1984 s. 12)

Interest on late payment of wages VerDate:06/30/1997

(1) Subject to subsection (3), if any wages or any sum referred to in section 25(2)(a) are not paid within 7 days from the day on which they become due under sections 23, 24 and 25, the employer shall pay interest at the rate specified in subsection (2) on the outstanding amount of wages or sum from the date on which such wages or sum become due up to the date of actual payment.

(2) The rate of interest specified for the purpose of subsection

(1) shall be the rate fixed by the Chief Justice by notice in the Gazette under section 50 of the District Court Ordinance (Cap 336).

(3) No interest shall be payable in respect of any period before the commencement* of this section.

(Added 74 of 1997 s. 9)

Note:

* Commencement date: 27 June 1997.

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 26

Manner and place of payment of wages VerDate:06/30/1997

(1) Subject to this Ordinance, wages shall be paid on a working day directly to an employee in legal tender at his place of employment or at any office or other place customarily used by the employer for the purpose of payment of wages or at any other place mutually agreed.

(2) With the consent of an employee wages may be paid-

(a) by cheque, money order or postal order;

(b) into an account in his name with any bank within the meaning of section 2 of the Banking Ordinance (Cap 155); or (Amended 49 of 1995 s. 53)

(c) to his duly appointed agent.

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 27

Payment not to be made in certain places VerDate:06/30/1997

Wages, or any sum due to an employee in respect of his contract of employment on the completion or termination thereof, shall not be paid-

(a) in any place of amusement;

(b) in any place where totalizator or pari mutuel betting is conducted or where cash-sweeps are organized as authorized under the Betting Duty Ordinance (Cap 108);

(c) in any place where intoxicating liquor or any dangerous drug is sold; or

(d) in any shop or store for the retail sale of merchandise, except where the employee is employed in such place, shop or store.

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 28

Remuneration other than wages VerDate:06/30/1997

(1) A contract of employment may provide for giving to an employee food, accommodation or other allowances or privileges in addition to wages as remuneration for his services.

(2) No employer shall give to an employee any intoxicating liquor, dangerous drug, or any ticket or other substitute for ticket for any cash-sweep, totalizator or pari mutuel authorized under the Betting Duty Ordinance (Cap 108) as remuneration for his services.

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 29

Prohibition of agreements as to manner of spending VerDate:06/30/1997

No employer shall in any contract of employment or agreement in consideration of a contract of employment make any provision as to the place at which, the manner in which, or the person with whom, wages paid to an employee are to be expended.

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 30

Provision of shops, etc. by employers for sale of commodities to employees VerDate:06/30/1997

An employer may establish shops, stores or places for the sale of commodities to his employees, but no employer shall bind any employee by contract, agreement or other obligation, written or oral, express or implied, to make use of any such shop, store or place for the purchase of commodities.

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 31

Employer not to enter into contract of employment without reasonable belief that he can pay wages VerDate:06/30/1997

(1) No person shall enter into, renew or continue a contract of employment as an employer unless he believes upon reasonable grounds that he will be able to pay all wages due under the contract of employment as they become due.

(2) An employer shall, if he ceases to believe upon reasonable grounds that he will be able to pay all the wages due by him under a contract of employment as they become due, forthwith take all necessary steps to terminate the contract in accordance with its terms.

SEVERANCE PAYMENTS

(Repealed 76 of 1985 s. 4)

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 31B
General provisions as to right to severance payment VerDate:06/30/1997

(1) Where an employee who has been employed under a continuous contract for a period of not less than 24 months ending with the relevant date- (Amended 76 of 1985 s. 5)

(a) is dismissed by his employer by reason of redundancy; or

(b) is laid off within the meaning of section 31E, the employer shall, subject to this Part and Part VC, be liable to pay to the employee a severance payment calculated in accordance with section 31G. (Amended 52 of 1988 s. 5)

(2) For the purposes of this Part an employee who is dismissed shall be taken to be dismissed by reason of redundancy if the dismissal is attributable wholly or mainly to the fact that-

(a) his employer has ceased, or intends to cease, to carry on the business-

(i) for the purposes of which the employee was employed by him; or

(ii) in the place where the employee was so employed; or

(b) the requirements of that business for employees to carry out work of a particular kind, or for employees to carry out work of a particular kind in the place where the employee was so employed, have ceased or diminished or are expected to cease or diminish. (Replaced 62 of 1992 s. 4)

(3) For the purposes of the application of this Part to an employee who is employed as a domestic servant in, or in connection with, a private household, this Part (except section 31J) shall apply as if the household were a business and the maintenance of the household were the carrying on of that business by the employer.

[cf. 1965 c. 62 ss. 1 & 19(1) U.K.]

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 31C

General exclusions from right to severance payment by reason of dismissal VerDate:07/07/2000

(1) An employee shall not be entitled to a severance payment by reason of dismissal where his employer, being so entitled by reason of the employee's conduct, terminates his contract of employment without notice or payment in lieu in accordance with section 9. (Amended 51 of 2000 s. 3)

(2) An employee shall not be entitled to a severance payment by reason of dismissal if, not less than 7 days before the relevant date, the employer has offered to renew his contract of employment, or to re-engage him under a new contract, so that-

(a) the provisions of the contract as renewed, or of the new contract, as the case may be, as to the capacity and place in which he would be employed, and as to the other terms and conditions of his employment, would not differ from the corresponding provisions of the contract as in force immediately before his dismissal; and

(b) the renewal or re-engagement would take effect on or before the relevant date, and the employee has unreasonably refused that offer.

(3) An employee shall not be entitled to a severance payment by reason of dismissal if, not less than 7 days before the relevant date, the employer has made to him an offer in writing to renew his contract of employment, or to re-engage him under a new contract, so that in accordance with the particulars specified in the offer the provisions of the contract as renewed, or of the new contract, as the case may be, as to the capacity and place in which he would be employed, and as to the other terms and conditions of his employment, would differ (wholly or in part) from the corresponding provisions of the contract as in force immediately before his dismissal, but-

(a) the offer constitutes an offer of suitable employment in relation to the employee;

(b) the offer constitutes an offer of employment no less favourable to the employee than hitherto; and

(c) the renewal or re-engagement would take effect on or before the relevant date,
and the employee has unreasonably refused that offer.

(4) Where the relevant date falls on a rest day or holiday, the references in subsection (2)(b) and subsection (3)(c) to the relevant date shall be construed as references to the next day after that rest day or holiday. (Amended 75 of 1997 s. 2)

(5) An employee shall not be entitled to a severance payment by reason of dismissal where, having been given notice of the termination of his contract of employment by his employer in accordance with section 6, he leaves the service of his employer before the expiration of that notice unless he so leaves-

(a) with the prior consent of the employer; or

(b) after having made a payment in lieu to the employer in accordance with section 7. (Replaced 75 of 1997 s. 2)
[cf. 1965 c. 62 s. 2 U.K.]

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 31D Dismissal by employer VerDate:06/30/1997

(1) For the purposes of and subject to this Part, an employee shall be taken to be dismissed by his employer if, but only if-

(a) the contract under which he is employed is terminated by the employer with or without notice or payment in lieu thereof other than in accordance with section 9;

(b) where under that contract he is employed for a fixed term, that term expires without being renewed under the same contract; or

(c) the employee terminates that contract with or without notice or payment in lieu, in circumstances such that he is entitled to terminate it without notice or payment in lieu in accordance with section 10 by reason of the employer's conduct. (Replaced 62 of 1992 s. 5)

(2) An employee shall not be taken for the purposes of this Part to be dismissed by his employer if-

(a) his contract of employment is renewed, or he is re-engaged by the same employer under a new contract of employment; and

(b) the renewal or re-engagement takes effect immediately on the ending of his employment under the previous contract.

(3) For the purposes of the application of subsection (2) to a contract under which the employment ends on a rest day or holiday, the renewal or re-engagement shall be treated as taking effect immediately on the ending of the employment under the previous contract if it takes effect on or before the next day after that rest day or holiday. [cf. 1965 c. 62 s. 3 U.K.]

Lay-off VerDate:06/30/1997

(1) Where an employee is employed under a contract on such terms and conditions that his remuneration thereunder depends on his being provided by the employer with work of the kind he is employed to do, he shall for the purposes of section 31B(1) be taken to be laid off where the total number of days on each of which such work is not provided for him by the employer exceeds-

(a) half of the total number of normal working days in any period of 4 consecutive weeks; or

(b) one-third of the total number of normal working days in any period of 26 consecutive weeks, and he is not paid a sum equivalent to the wages which he would have earned if work had been provided on the days on which no work was provided. (Amended 41 of 1990 s. 8)

(1A) Notwithstanding subsection (1), any period during which an employee is not provided with work because of a lock-out by his employer, or as a result of a rest day, a statutory holiday or a day of annual leave, shall not be taken into account as normal working days in determining whether an employee has been laid off. (Added 41 of 1990 s. 8. Amended 61 of 1993 s. 4)

(2) The continuity of a contract of employment of an employee shall not be treated as broken by any lay-off as a result of which no severance payment has been made.

(3) For the purposes of this Part the "relevant date" (æœ%œ—œæ—ÿæœÿ) in respect of the right of an employee to a severance payment arising by reason of lay-off means any day on which the period of 4 consecutive weeks or 26 consecutive weeks, as the case may be, referred to in subsection (1) has expired. (Amended 41 of 1990 s. 8)

Excluded classes of employees VerDate:06/30/1997

Section 31B shall not apply-

(a) where the employer is the husband or wife of the employee;

(b) to any outworker;

(c) (Repealed 76 of 1985 s. 6)

(d) to any person, employed by a government other than the Hong Kong Government, who is a subject or citizen of the state under whose government he is employed; or

(e) without prejudice to paragraph (a), to any person in respect of employment as a domestic servant in, or in connection with, a private household, where the employer is the father, mother, grandfather, grandmother, stepfather, stepmother, son, daughter, grandson, granddaughter, stepson, stepdaughter, brother, sister, half-brother or half-sister of the employee.

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 31G

Amount of severance payment VerDate:06/30/1997

(1) Subject to this Part, the amount of a severance payment to which an employee is entitled in any case shall be calculated by allowing-

(a) in the case of a monthly rated employee, two-thirds of this last full month's wages, or two-thirds of $22500, whichever is less; and

(b) in any other case, 18 days' wages based on any 18 days chosen by the employee and occurring during his last 30 normal working days, or two-thirds of $22500, whichever is less, (Amended L.N. 264 of 1995) for every year (and pro rata as respects an incomplete year) of employment under a continuous contract by his employer subject in all cases to a maximum payment not exceeding, where the relevant date occurs in a period specified in column 1 of Table A in the Seventh Schedule, the amount specified in column 2 of that table opposite to the period. (Amended 5 of 1995 s. 6)

(1A) Notwithstanding subsection (1), where-

(a) the relevant date occurs in a period specified in column 1 of Table B in the Seventh Schedule; and

(b) the employee has been employed under a continuous contract by his employer for a period ("employment period") which immediately precedes the relevant date and is longer than the period specified in column 2 of that table opposite to the period in which the relevant date occurs, that part of the employment period exceeding the period so specified in column 2 of that table shall be reduced by one half for the purpose of calculating his entitlement under subsection (1). (Added 5 of 1995 s. 6)

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), the employee may elect to have his wages averaged over the period of 12 months immediately preceding the relevant date, but where he so elects, then-

(a) in the case of a monthly rated employee, the monthly average shall not exceed $22500; and

(b) in any other case, the total wages for the period of 12 months shall, for the purpose of calculating the daily average, not exceed 12 times $22500. (Amended L.N. 264 of 1995)

(3) For the purposes of this section, in the case of an employee who was employed under a continuous contract otherwise than by way of manual labour and whose average monthly wages during the period of 12 months immediately preceding the date of commencement of the Employment (Amendment) Ordinance 1990 (41 of 1990) exceed $15000, a reference to the period of employment under a continuous contract shall not include a reference to any such employment occurring more than-

(a) 3 years prior to 1 January 1990, where the relevant date occurs in 1990;

(b) 4 years prior to 1 January 1990, where the relevant date occurs in 1991;

(c) 5 years prior to 1 January 1990, where the relevant date occurs in 1992;

(d) 6 years prior to 1 January 1990, where the relevant date occurs in 1993;

(e) 7 years prior to 1 January 1990, where the relevant date occurs in 1994;

(f) 8 years prior to 1 January 1990, where the relevant date occurs in 1995;

(g) 9 years prior to 1 January 1990, where the relevant date occurs in 1996;

(h) 10 years prior to 1 January 1990, where the relevant date occurs in 1997 or any year thereafter.

Severance payment to be reduced by amount of gratuities and benefits in certain cases VerDate:05/25/2001

For transitional and savings provisions relating to the amendment of this section made by the Employment (Amendment) (No. 2) Ordinance 2001 (18 of 2001), see section 5 of that Ordinance.

If an employee becomes entitled to payment of a severance payment under this Part and-

(a) because of the operation of the employee's contract of employment, one or more gratuities based on length of service or one or more relevant occupational retirement scheme benefits have been paid to the employee; or

(b) a relevant mandatory provident fund scheme benefit is being held in a mandatory provident fund scheme in respect of the employee, or has been paid to or in respect of the employee, the severance payment is to be reduced by the total amount of all of the gratuities and benefits to or in respect of the employee to the extent that they relate to the employee's years of service for which the severance payment is payable.

(Replaced 4 of 1998 s. 5. Amended 18 of 2001 s. 2)

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 31IA

Gratuity or benefit to be reduced by amount of severance payment in certain cases VerDate:12/01/2000

(1) If-

(a) because of the operation of the employee's contract of employment, an employee has become entitled to payment of a gratuity based on length of service, or to payment of a relevant occupational retirement scheme benefit; or

(b) a relevant mandatory provident fund scheme benefit is being held in a mandatory provident fund scheme in respect of the employee, and the employee has been paid a severance payment under this Part, the gratuity or benefit is, to the extent that it is attributable to the same years of service as those for which the severance payment is payable, to be reduced by the whole amount of the severance payment.

(2) Subsection (1) has effect even though the years of service for which the severance payment was made exceed those to which the gratuity or benefit is attributable.

(3) Section 70A of the Occupational Retirement Schemes Ordinance (Cap 426) and section 12A of the Mandatory Provident Fund Schemes Ordinance (Cap 485) have effect in relation to this section.
(Replaced 4 of 1998 s. 5)

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 31J

Change of ownership of business VerDate:06/30/1997

(1) This section shall have effect where-

(a) a change occurs (whether by virtue of a sale or other disposition or by operation of law) in the ownership of a business for the purposes of which a person is employed, or of a part of such a business; and

(b) in connection with that change the person by whom the employee is employed immediately before the change occurs (in this section referred to as "the previous owner") terminates the employee's contract in accordance with section 6 or 7.

(2) If, by agreement with the employee, the person who immediately after the change occurs is the owner of the business or of the part of the business in question, as the case may be (in this section referred to as "the new owner") renews the employee's contract of employment (with the substitution of the new owner for the previous owner) or re-engages him under a new contract of employment, section 31D(2) shall have effect as if the renewal or re-engagement had been a renewal or re-engagement by the previous owner (without any substitution of the new owner for the previous owner).

(3) If the new owner offers to renew the employee's contract of employment (with the substitution of the new owner for the previous owner) or to re-engage him under a new contract of employment, but the employee refuses the offer, section 31C(2) or (3) (as the case may be) shall have effect, subject to subsection (4), in relation to that offer and refusal as it would have had effect in relation to the like offer made by the previous owner and a refusal of that offer by the employee.

(4) For the purposes of the operation, in accordance with subsection (3), of section 31C(2) or (3) in relation to an offer made by the new owner-

(a) the offer shall not be treated as one whereby the provisions of the contract as renewed, or of the new contract, as the case may be, would differ from the corresponding provisions of the contract as in force immediately before the dismissal by reason only that the new owner would be substituted for the previous owner as the employer; and

(b) no account shall be taken of that substitution in determining whether the refusal of the offer was unreasonable.

(5) This section shall have effect (subject to the necessary modifications) in relation to a case where-

(a) the person by whom a business, or part of a business, is owned immediately before a change is one of the persons by whom (whether as partners, trustees or otherwise) it is owned immediately after the change; or

(b) the persons by whom a business, or part of a business, is owned immediately before a change (whether as partners, trustees or otherwise) include the person or one or more of the persons by whom it is owned immediately after the change, as this section has effect where the previous owner and the new owner are wholly different persons.

(6) Nothing in this section shall be construed as requiring any variation of a contract of employment by agreement between the parties to be treated as constituting a termination of the contract.

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 31K Associated companies VerDate:06/30/1997

(1) Where the employer is a company, any reference in this Part to re-engagement by the employer shall be construed as a reference to re-engagement by that company or by any associated company, and any reference in this Part to an offer made by the employer shall be construed as including a reference to an offer made by an associated company.

(2) Subsection (1) shall not affect the operation of section 31J in a case where the previous owner and the new owner (as defined by that section) are associated companies; and where that section applies, subsection (1) shall not apply.

(3) Where an employee is dismissed by his employer, and the employer is a company (in this subsection referred to as "the employing company") which has one or more associated companies, then if-

(a) none of the conditions specified in section 31B(2) is fulfilled;

(b) one or other of those conditions would be fulfilled if the business of the employing company and the business of the associated company (or, if more than one, each of the associated companies) were treated as together constituting one business, that condition shall for the purposes of this Part be taken to be fulfilled in relation to the dismissal of the employee.

(4) Where an employee of a company is taken into the employment of another company which, at the time when he is taken into its employment, is an associated company of the first-mentioned company, his period of employment at that time shall count as a period of employment with the associated company, and the change of employer shall not break the continuity of the period of employment.

(5) For the purposes of this section 2 companies shall be taken to be associated companies if one is a subsidiary of the other, or both are subsidiaries of a third company, and "associated company" (ç>_è^- å...¬å,) shall be construed accordingly.

(6) In this section "company" (å...¬å,) and "subsidiary" (é™,,å±¬å...¬å,) have the meanings respectively assigned thereto by section 2 of the Companies Ordinance (Cap 32). (Amended 76 of 1985 s. 7)

[cf. 1965 c. 62 s. 48 U.K.]

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 31L

Implied or constructive termination of contract VerDate:06/30/1997

(1) Where in accordance with any enactment or rule of law-

(a) any act on the part of the employer; or

(b) any event affecting an employer (including, in the case of an individual, his death), operates so as to terminate a contract under which an employee is employed by him, that act or event shall for the purposes of this Part be treated as a termination of the contract by the employer, if apart from this subsection it would not constitute a termination of the contract by him.

(2) Where subsection (1) applies, and the employee's contract of employment is not renewed, and he is not re-engaged under a new contract, as mentioned in section 31D(2), he shall for the purposes of this Part be taken to be dismissed by reason of redundancy if the circumstances in which the contract is not renewed and he is not re-engaged as mentioned in section 31D(2), are wholly or mainly attributable to one or other of the facts specified in section 31B(2).

(3) For the purposes of subsection (2), section 31B(2)(a), in so far as it relates to the employer ceasing or intending to cease to carry on the business, shall be construed as if the reference to the employer included a reference to any person to whom, in consequence of the act or event in question, power to dispose of the business has passed.

(4) In this section any reference to section 31D(2) includes a reference to section 31D(2) as applied by section 31J(2).
[cf. 1965 c. 62 s. 22 U.K.]

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 31M Death of employer or of employee VerDate:06/30/1997

Part I of the Third Schedule shall have effect in relation to the death of an employer; and Part II of that Schedule shall have effect in relation to the death of an employee.
[cf. 1965 c. 62 s. 23 U.K.]

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 31N Claims for severance payments VerDate:06/30/1997

Notwithstanding anything in this Part, an employee shall not be entitled to a severance payment unless, before the end of the period of 3 months beginning with the relevant date, or within such extended period as the Commissioner may agree- (Amended 19 of 1984 s. 3)

- (a) the payment has been agreed and paid;
- (b) the employee has made a claim for payment by notice in writing given to the employer; or
- (c) a question as to the right of the employee to the payment, or as to the amount of the payment, has been made the subject of a claim filed with-
 - (i) the Registrar of the Minor Employment Claims Adjudication Board in accordance with Part IV of the Minor Employment Claims Adjudication Board Ordinance (Cap 453); or
 - (ii) the Registrar of the Labour Tribunal in accordance with Part IV of the Labour Tribunal Ordinance (Cap 25). (Amended 61 of 1994 s. 50)
[cf. 1965 c. 62 s. 21 U.K.]

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 31O

(1) Where an employee is entitled to a severance payment under this Part, his employer shall make the severance payment to him not later than 2 months from the receipt of a notice in accordance with paragraph (b) of section 31N unless either the employer or the employee has, before the expiration of that period, made the severance payment the subject of a claim filed with-

(a) the Registrar of the Minor Employment Claims Adjudication Board in accordance with Part IV of the Minor Employment Claims Adjudication Board Ordinance (Cap 453); or

(b) the Registrar of the Labour Tribunal in accordance with Part IV of the Labour Tribunal Ordinance (Cap 25). (Amended 61 of 1994 s. 51)

(1A) Where the Minor Employment Claims Adjudication Board or Labour Tribunal has ordered that any sum in respect of severance payment is payable by an employer, it shall order the time within which such sum shall be payable, provided that if it has made no order as to the time within which the sum shall be payable, the sum shall be paid within 14 days from the date of the order of payment. (Added 62 of 1992 s. 8. Amended 61 of 1994 s. 51)

(2) A severance payment shall be made in legal tender except that, where the employee so consents, payment may be made-

(a) by cheque, money order or postal order;

(b) into an account in his name with any bank within the meaning of section 2 of the Banking Ordinance (Cap 155); or (Amended 49 of 1995 s. 53)

(c) to his duly appointed agent.

(3) (a) An employer who without reasonable excuse fails to comply with subsection (1) or (1A) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine at level 5.

(b) An employer who without reasonable excuse fails to comply with subsection (2) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine at level 3. (Replaced 103 of 1995 s. 8)

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 31P

Written particulars of severance payment VerDate:06/30/1997

(1) On making any severance payment, otherwise than in pursuance of a decision of the Minor Employment Claims Adjudication Board or Labour Tribunal which specifies the amount of the payment to be made, the employer shall give to the employee a written statement indicating how the amount of the payment has been calculated. (Amended 61 of 1994 s. 52)

(2) (a) An employer who without reasonable excuse fails to comply with subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine at level 3.

(b) An employer who in a statement under subsection (1) includes anything which to his knowledge is false in a material particular, or recklessly includes anything which is false in a material particular shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine at level 5. (Replaced 103 of 1995 s. 9)

(3) Without prejudice to any proceedings for an offence under subsection (2)(a), if an employer fails to comply with the requirements of subsection (1), the employee may by notice in writing to the employer require the employer to give to the employee a written statement complying with those requirements within such period (not being less than 1 week beginning with the day on which the notice was given) as may be specified in the notice.

(4) If, without reasonable excuse, an employer fails to comply with a notice under subsection (3) he shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable-

(a) in the case of a first conviction to a fine at level 3; or

(b) in the case of a second or subsequent conviction, to a fine at level 5. (Amended 24 of 1988 s. 2; 103 of 1995 s. 9)
[cf. 1965 c. 62 s. 18 U.K.]

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 31Q
Presumption VerDate:06/30/1997

For the purposes of this Part an employee who has been dismissed by his employer shall, unless the contrary is proved, be presumed to have been so dismissed by reason of redundancy.

(Part VA added 67 of 1974 s. 5)

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 31R
General provisions as to employee's right to long service payment VerDate:06/27/1998

PART VB

LONG SERVICE PAYMENTS

(1) Where an employee who has been employed under a continuous contract-

(a) for not less than 5 years of service at the relevant date-
(Amended 74 of 1997 s. 10)

(i) is dismissed and his employer is not liable to pay him a severance payment by reason thereof; or

(ii) subject to subsections (3) to (5), terminates his contract in the circumstances specified in section 10(aa); or (Amended 61 of 1993 s. 5)

(b) terminates his contract and, at the relevant date, he is not less than 65 years of age and has been employed under that contract for not less than 5 years, (Amended 65 of 1995 s. 2)
the employer shall, subject to this Part and Part VC, pay to the employee a long service payment calculated in accordance with section 31V(1).
(Amended 105 of 1991 s. 2)

(2) (Repealed 74 of 1997 s. 10)

(3) Where an employee has terminated his contract in the circumstances specified in section 10(aa), the employer may, at his own expense, require the employee to undergo a medical examination by a registered medical practitioner nominated by the employer to obtain a second opinion as to whether or not the employee is permanently unfit for a particular type of work as specified in the certificate obtained by the employee. (Added 61 of 1993 s. 5)

(4) An employer shall forfeit his right to exercise the option under subsection (3) unless-

(a) he makes arrangements for a medical examination to take place not more than 14 days after the employer receives a copy of a certificate issued under section 10(aa); and

(b) he notifies the employee in writing, not less than 48 hours before the examination is to take place, giving him details of the appointment. (Added 61 of 1993 s. 5)

(5) An employee referred to in subsection (3) who, without reasonable excuse, refuses to undergo a medical examination forfeits his right to a long service payment under this Part. (Added 61 of 1993 s. 5)

(6) Where the second opinion obtained by an employer under subsection (3) comes to the opposite conclusion from the certificate issued under section 10(aa), the employer shall submit the certificate and the second opinion to the Commissioner and the Commissioner shall, after such consultation with such medical experts as he considers necessary, rule whether or not the employee is entitled to a long service payment under this Part. (Added 61 of 1993 s. 5)

(Replaced 52 of 1988 s. 6. Amended 41 of 1990 s. 11)

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 31RA
Death of employee VerDate:06/27/1998

(1) Where an employee dies and he had been at the time of his death employed under a continuous contract for not less than 5 years of service on the date of his death, the employer shall, subject to this Part and Part VC, pay a long service payment calculated in accordance with section 31V(1) to- (Amended 105 of 1991 s. 3; 74 of 1997 s. 11)

- (a) the spouse of the employee, if the employee leaves a spouse; or
- (b) the issue of the employee, if the employee leaves any issue but no spouse; or
- (c) a parent of the employee, if the employee leaves neither a spouse nor issue; or
- (d) the personal representative of the employee, if the employee does not leave any spouse, issue or parent.

(1A) (Repealed 74 of 1997 s. 11)

(2) A person referred to in paragraph (a), (b), (c) or (d) of subsection (1) shall not be entitled to such payment unless-

- (a) that person serves an application in the form specified by the Commissioner under section 49 on the relevant employer within the period of 30 days beginning on the day next following the date of death of the employee or within such extended period as the Commissioner may allow; and
- (b) the applicant's relationship (being a relationship mentioned in paragraph (a), (b), (c) or (d) of subsection (1)) to the deceased employee is supported by documentary evidence.

(3) The Commissioner may extend the time for serving an application under subsection (2) although the application for extension is not made until after the expiration of the period of 30 days after the date of death of an employee.

(4) Where a person referred to in paragraph (a) or (b) of subsection (1) is a minor, the application under subsection (2) shall be made by the guardian of that person.

(5) Where a person is entitled to a long service payment under this section, the employer shall pay such person the long service payment to which he is entitled-

(a) where the person so entitled is a spouse, not later than 7 days after the receipt of the application; or

(b) where the person so entitled is not a spouse, not earlier than the day (hereinafter in this paragraph called "the said day") next following the date of expiration of the period which, as regards the particular case, was the period during which an application under subsection (2)(a) could be served but not later than 7 days after the said day.

(6) An employer who without reasonable excuse fails to pay a long service payment on or before the latest date for payment as required by subsection (5) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine at level 5. (Amended 103 of 1995 s. 10)

(7) Where 2 or more persons are entitled to a long service payment under this section, the long service payment shall be divided equally between such persons.

(8) A long service payment is payable in accordance with this Part by an employer on the death of an employee from whatever cause and is payable in addition to any compensation payable by the employer under the Employees' Compensation Ordinance (Cap 282).
(Added 52 of 1988 s. 6)

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 31RB Application to domestic servants VerDate:06/30/1997

This Part (except section 31Z) shall apply to an employee who is employed as a domestic servant in, or in connection with, a private household as if the household were a business and the maintenance of the household were the carrying on of that business by the employer.
(Added 52 of 1988 s. 6)

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 31S General exclusions from right to long service payment by reason of dismissal VerDate:07/07/2000

(1) An employee shall not be entitled to a long service payment by reason of dismissal where his employer, being so entitled by reason of the employee's conduct, terminates his contract of employment without notice or payment in lieu in accordance with section 9. (Amended 51 of 2000 s. 5)

(2) An employee shall not be entitled to a long service payment by reason of dismissal where, having been given notice of the termination of his contract of employment by his employer in accordance with section 6, he leaves the service of his employer before the expiration of that notice unless he so leaves-

(a) with the prior consent of the employer; or

(b) after having made a payment in lieu to the employer in accordance with section 7. (Replaced 75 of 1997 s. 3)

(3) Subject to subsection (6), an employee employed under a contract for a fixed term shall not be entitled to a long service payment where he is taken to be dismissed by his employer under section 31T(1)(b) if, not less than 7 days before the relevant date, the employer has offered to renew his contract of employment, or to re-engage him under a new contract, so that-

(a) the provisions of the contract as renewed, or of the new contract, as the case may be, as to the capacity and place in which he would be employed, and as to the other terms and conditions of his employment, would not differ from the corresponding provisions of the contract as in force immediately before his dismissal; and

(b) the renewal or re-engagement would take effect on or before the relevant date, and the employee has unreasonably refused that offer. (Added 75 of 1997 s. 3)

(4) Subject to subsection (6), an employee employed under a contract for a fixed term shall not be entitled to a long service payment where he is taken to be dismissed by his employer under section 31T(1)(b) if, not less than 7 days before the relevant date, the employer has made to him an offer in writing to renew his contract of employment, or to re-engage him under a new contract, so that in accordance with the particulars specified in the offer the provisions of the contract as renewed, or of the new contract, as the case may be, as to the capacity and place in which he would be employed, and as to the other terms and conditions of his employment, would differ, wholly or in part, from the corresponding provisions of the contract as in force immediately before his dismissal, but-

(a) the offer constitutes an offer of suitable employment in relation to the employee;

(b) the offer constitutes an offer of employment no less favourable to the employee than hitherto; and

(c) the renewal or re-engagement would take effect on or before the relevant date, and the employee has unreasonably refused that offer. (Added 75 of 1997 s. 3)

(5) Where the relevant date falls on a rest day or holiday, the references in subsections (3)(b) and (4)(c) to the relevant date shall be construed as references to the next day after that rest day or holiday. (Added 75 of 1997 s. 3)

(6) Without affecting the application of section 31R(1)(a)(ii) and

(b) and (2)(b), where an employee employed under a contract for a fixed term, on or before the day on which the contract for a fixed term expires, refuses an offer of any of the descriptions mentioned in subsection (3) or

(a) the employee is entitled to terminate that contract under section 31R(1)(a)(ii) or (2)(b) as appropriate, that expiration shall be regarded as termination of contract by the employee under section 31R(1)(a)(ii) or (2)(b) for the purposes of the application of this Part; or

(b) the employee is entitled to terminate that contract under section 31R(1)(b), that expiration shall be regarded as termination of contract by the employee under section 31R(1)(b) for the purposes of the application of this Part. (Added 75 of 1997 s. 3)

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 31T Dismissal by employer VerDate:06/30/1997

(1) For the purposes of and subject to this Part, an employee shall be taken to be dismissed by his employer if, but only if-

(a) the contract under which he is employed is terminated by the employer with or without notice or payment in lieu thereof other than in accordance with section 9;

(b) where under that contract he is employed for a fixed term, that term expires without being renewed under the same contract; or

(c) the employee terminates that contract with or without notice or payment in lieu, in circumstances such that he is entitled to terminate it without notice or payment in lieu in accordance with section 10 by reason of the employer's conduct. (Replaced 62 of 1992 s. 9)

(2) An employee shall not be taken for the purposes of this Part to be dismissed by his employer if-

(a) his contract of employment is renewed, or he is re-engaged by the same employer under a new contract of employment; and

(b) the renewal or re-engagement takes effect immediately on the ending of his employment under the previous contract.

(3) For the purposes of the application of subsection (2) to a contract under which the employment ends on a rest day or holiday, the renewal or re-engagement shall be treated as taking effect immediately on the ending of the employment under the previous contract if it takes effect on or before the next day after that rest day or holiday.

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 31U
Excluded classes of employees VerDate:06/30/1997

Sections 31R and 31RA shall not apply- (Amended 52 of 1988 s. 7)

- (a) where the employer is the husband or wife of the employee;
- (b) to any outworker;
- (c) to any person, employed by a government other than the Hong Kong Government, who is a subject or citizen of the state under whose government he is employed; or
- (d) without prejudice to paragraph (a), to any person in respect of employment as a domestic servant in, or in connection with, a private household, where the employer is the father, mother, grandfather, grandmother, stepfather, stepmother, son, daughter, grandson, granddaughter, stepson, stepdaughter, brother, sister, half-brother or half-sister of the employee.

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 31V
Amount of long service payment VerDate:06/27/1998

(1) Subject to this Part, the amount of a long service payment payable under section 31R(1) or 31RA(1) shall be calculated by allowing- (Amended 105 of 1991 s. 4)

- (a) in the case of a monthly rated employee, two-thirds of his last full month's wages, or two-thirds of $22500, whichever is less; and

of 1990 s. 12. Amended 5 of 1995 s. 7)

(1AA) Notwithstanding subsection (1), where-

(a) the relevant date occurs in a period specified in column 1 of Table B in the Seventh Schedule; and

(b) the employee has been employed under a continuous contract by his employer for a period ("employment period") which immediately precedes the relevant date and is longer than the period specified in column 2 of that table opposite to the period in which the relevant date occurs, that part of the employment period exceeding the period so specified in column 2 of that table shall be reduced by one half for the purpose of calculating his entitlement under subsection (1). (Added 5 of 1995 s. 7)

(1A) Notwithstanding subsection (1), the employee may elect to have his wages averaged over the period of 12 months immediately preceding the relevant date, but where he so elects, then-

(a) in the case of a monthly rated employee, the monthly average shall not exceed $22500; and

(b) in any other case, the total wages for the 12 months shall, for the purpose of calculating the daily average, not exceed 12 times $22500. (Added 41 of 1990 s. 12. Amended L.N. 264 of 1995)

(2) Subject to this Part, the amount of a long service payment payable under section 31R(2) or 31RA(1A) shall be-

(a)-(c) (Repealed 74 of 1997 s. 12)

(d)-(e) (Repealed 74 of 1997 s. 13)

(3) (Repealed 41 of 1990 s. 12)

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 31W

Calculation of period of employment VerDate:06/30/1997

(1) For the purposes of this Part, a reference to the period of employment under a continuous contract shall not include a reference to any such employment occurring more than- (Amended 41 of 1990 s. 13)

(a) 6 years prior to 1 January 1986, where the relevant date occurs in 1986;

(b) 7 years prior to 1 January 1986, where the relevant date occurs in 1987;

(c) 8 years prior to 1 January 1986, where the relevant date occurs in 1988; and

(d) 9 years prior to 1 January 1986, where the relevant date occurs in 1989 or any year thereafter.

(1A) Subsection (1) shall cease to have effect on the commencement of the Employment (Amendment) Ordinance 1995 (5 of 1995). (Added 5 of 1995 s. 8)

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), for the purposes of this Part, in the case of an employee who was employed under a continuous contract otherwise than by way of manual labour and whose average monthly wages during the period of 12 months immediately preceding the date of commencement of the Employment (Amendment) Ordinance 1990 (41 of 1990) exceed $15000, a reference to the period of employment under a continuous contract shall not include a reference to any such employment occurring more than-

(a) 3 years prior to 1 January 1990, where the relevant date occurs in 1990;

(b) 4 years prior to 1 January 1990, where the relevant date occurs in 1991;

(c) 5 years prior to 1 January 1990, where the relevant date occurs in 1992;

(d) 6 years prior to 1 January 1990, where the relevant date occurs in 1993;

(e) 7 years prior to 1 January 1990, where the relevant date occurs in 1994;

(f) 8 years prior to 1 January 1990, where the relevant date occurs in 1995;

(g) 9 years prior to 1 January 1990, where the relevant date occurs in 1996;

(h) 10 years prior to 1 January 1990, where the relevant date occurs in 1997 or any year thereafter. (Added 41 of 1990 s. 13)

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 31Y

For transitional and savings provisions relating to the amendment of this section made by the Employment (Amendment) (No. 2) Ordinance 2001 (18 of 2001), see section 5 of that Ordinance.

If an employee becomes entitled to payment of a long service payment under this Part and-

(a) because of the operation of the employee's contract of employment, one or more gratuities based on length of service or one or more relevant occupational retirement scheme benefits have been paid to the employee; or

(b) a relevant mandatory provident fund scheme benefit is being held in a mandatory provident fund scheme in respect of the employee, or has been paid to or in respect of the employee, the long service payment is to be reduced by the total amount of all of the gratuities and benefits to or in respect of the employee to the extent that they relate to the employee's years of service for which the long service payment is payable.

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 31YA

Reduction of long service payment and other amounts on employee's death VerDate:12/01/2000

(1) If-

(a) an employee has died; and

(b) as a result of the death, a person becomes entitled to payment of a long service payment and-

(i) because of the operation of the employee's contract of employment, one or more gratuities based on length of service or one or more relevant occupational retirement scheme benefits have been paid to the person in respect of the employee; or

(ii) a relevant mandatory provident fund scheme benefit is being held in a mandatory provident fund scheme in respect of the employee, or has been paid to or in respect of the employee, the long service payment is to be reduced by the total amount of all of the gratuities and benefits to or in respect of the employee to the extent that they relate to the employee's years of service for which the long service payment is payable.

(2) If-

(a) an employee has died; and

(b) as a result of the death, a person-

(i) because of the operation of the employee's contract of employment, becomes entitled to payment of a gratuity based on length of service or to payment of a relevant occupational retirement scheme benefit; or

(ii) becomes entitled to payment of a relevant mandatory provident fund scheme benefit; and

(c) a long service payment under this Part has been paid to the person in respect of the employee, the gratuity or benefit is, to the extent that it is attributable to the same years of service as those for which the long service payment is payable, to be reduced by the whole of the long service payment.

(3) Subsection (2) has effect even though the years of service for which the long service payment was made exceed those to which the gratuity or benefit is attributable.

(4) If-

(a) the employer of an employee who has died is, as a result of the employee's death, required to make a long service payment under section 31RA to a person; and

(b) another person is entitled to one or more gratuities, relevant occupational retirement scheme benefits or relevant mandatory provident fund scheme benefits as a result of that death, that other person is entitled to be paid the gratuities, relevant occupational retirement scheme benefits and relevant mandatory provident fund scheme benefits relating to the employee's years of service only to the extent that the total amount of those gratuities and benefits exceeds the amount of the long service payment.

(5) If-

(a) the employer of an employee who has died has made a long service payment under section 31RA to a person as a result of the employee's death; and

(b) the administrator of an occupational retirement scheme has paid a relevant occupational retirement scheme benefit, or the approved trustee of a mandatory provident fund scheme has paid a relevant mandatory provident fund scheme benefit, to another person as a result of that death, that other person must repay the benefit to that administrator or trustee except for the amount of the excess referred to in subsection (4).

(6) On being repaid the benefit, the administrator or trustee must pay it to the employer concerned.

(7) Section 70A of the Occupational Retirement Schemes Ordinance

(Cap 426) and section 12A of the Mandatory Provident Fund Schemes Ordinance (Cap 485) have effect in relation to this section.
(Replaced 4 of 1998 s. 5)

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 31YAA

Gratuity or benefit to be reduced by amount of long service payment in certain cases VerDate:12/01/2000

(1) If-

(a) because of the operation of the employee's contract of employment, an employee has become entitled to payment of a gratuity based on length of service, or to payment of a relevant occupational retirement scheme benefit; or

(b) a relevant mandatory provident fund scheme benefit is being held in a mandatory provident fund scheme in respect of the employee, and the employee has been paid a long service payment under this Part, the gratuity or benefit is, to the extent that it is attributable to the same years of service as those for which the long service payment is payable, to be reduced by the whole of the long service payment.

(2) Subsection (1) has effect even though the years of service for which the long service payment was made exceed those to which the gratuity or benefit is attributable.

(3) Section 70A of the Occupational Retirement Schemes Ordinance (Cap 426) and section 12A of the Mandatory Provident Fund Schemes Ordinance (Cap 485) have effect in relation to this section.

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 31Z

Change of ownership of business VerDate:06/30/1997

(1) This section shall have effect where-

(a) a change occurs (whether by virtue of a sale or other disposition or by operation of law) in the ownership of a business for the purposes of which a person is employed, or of a part of such a business; and

(b) in connection with that change the person by whom the employee is employed immediately before the change occurs (in this section referred to as "the previous owner") terminates the employee's contract in accordance with section 6 or 7.

(2) If, by agreement with the employee, the person who immediately after the change occurs is the owner of the business or of the part of the business in question, as the case may be, (in this section referred to as "the new owner") renews the employee's contract of employment (with the substitution of the new owner for the previous owner) or re-engages him under a new contract of employment, section 31T(2) shall have effect as if the renewal or re-engagement had been a renewal or re-engagement by the previous owner (without any substitution of the new owner for the previous owner).

(3) This section shall have effect (subject to the necessary modifications) in relation to a case where-

(a) the person by whom a business, or part of a business, is owned immediately before a change is one of the persons by whom (whether as partners, trustees or otherwise) it is owned immediately after the change; or

(b) the persons by whom a business, or part of a business, is owned immediately before a change (whether as partners, trustees or otherwise) include the person or one or more of the persons by whom it is owned immediately after the change, as this section has effect where the previous owner and the new owner are wholly different persons.

(4) Nothing in this section shall be construed as requiring any variation of a contract of employment by agreement between the parties to be treated as constituting a termination of the contract.

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 31ZA

Associated companies VerDate:06/30/1997

(1) Where the employer is a company, any reference in this Part to re-engagement by the employer shall be construed as a reference to re-engagement by that company or by any associated company.

(2) Subsection (1) shall not affect the operation of section 31Z in a case where the previous owner and the new owner (as defined by that section) are associated companies; and where that section applies, subsection (1) shall not apply.

(3) Where an employee of a company is taken into the employment of another company which, at the time when he is taken into its employment, is an associated company of the first-mentioned company, his period of employment at that time shall count as a period of employment with the associated company, and the change of employer shall not break the continuity of the period of employment.

(4) For the purposes of this section, 2 companies shall be taken to be associated companies if one is a subsidiary of the other, or both are subsidiaries of a third company, and "associated company" (ç,è`á...¬á,) shall be construed accordingly.

(5) In this section "company" (á...¬á,) and "subsidiary" (é™,,á±¬á...¬á,) have the meanings respectively assigned thereto by section 2 of the Companies Ordinance (Cap 32).

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 31ZE

Written particulars of long service payment VerDate:06/30/1997

(1) On making any long service payment, the employer shall give to the person entitled to the payment a written statement indicating how the amount of the payment has been calculated. (Amended 52 of 1988 s. 13)

(2) (a) An employer who without reasonable excuse fails to comply with subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable to a fine at level 3.

(b) An employer who in a statement under subsection (1) includes anything which to his knowledge is false in a material particular, or recklessly includes anything which is false in a material particular shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable to a fine at level 5.

(Replaced 103 of 1995 s. 12)

(3) Without prejudice to any proceedings for an offence under subsection (2)(a), if an employer fails to comply with the requirements of subsection (1), the person entitled to the payment may by notice in writing to the employer require the employer to give to the person entitled to the payment a written statement complying with those requirements within such period (not being less than 1 week beginning with the day on which the notice was given) as may be specified in the notice.

(Amended 52 of 1988 s. 13)

(4) If, without reasonable excuse, an employer fails to comply with a notice under subsection (3) he commits an offence and is liable-

(a) in the case of a first conviction, to a fine at level 3; or

(b) in the case of a second or subsequent conviction, to a fine at level 5. (Amended 24 of 1988 s. 2; 103 of 1995 s. 12)

Re-employment after retirement at a specified age VerDate:06/27/1998

PART VC

SUPPLEMENTARY PROVISIONS TO PARTS VA AND VB

(1) Subject to subsection (2), where a continuous contract of employment specifies an age of retirement and-

(a) the employee retires at that age; and

(b) the employee has been employed under that contract for not less than 5 years of service ending at the relevant date; and (Amended 74 of 1997 s. 14)

(c) he receives in relation to the years of service in respect of which long service payment would have been payable, had the employee been dismissed at the relevant date,-

(i) by virtue of the terms of his contract of employment, any gratuity based upon length of service; or

(ii) by virtue of a retirement scheme, any payment thereunder ; and

(d) the total sum he receives under paragraph (c) is not less than the long service payment to which he would have been entitled had he been dismissed at the relevant date; and

(e) immediately after his retirement, the employee is re-employed by the person by whom he was employed immediately before his retirement, then for the purposes of Parts VA and VB of this Ordinance, the employment after retirement shall be regarded as a fresh employment.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), any reference therein to a retirement scheme payment shall not include that part, if any, of the payment which represents a return of an employee's own contributions, including any sum payable in respect of interest thereon.

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 32

Restriction on deductions from wages VerDate:04/03/1998

PART VI

DEDUCTIONS FROM WAGES

(1) No deductions shall be made by an employer from the wages of his employee or from any other sum due to the employee otherwise than in accordance with this Ordinance.

(2) The following deductions may be made by an employer from the wages of his employee-

(a) deductions for absence from work:

Provided that-

(i) in the case of a contract of employment under which wages are calculated on a basis of time, no such deduction shall exceed a sum proportionate to the period of time during which the employee was absent from work;

(ii) no such deduction shall be made for the purpose of defraying or partly defraying the cost of holiday pay or sickness allowance which the employer has paid or may be or may become liable to pay to the employee; (Replaced 39 of 1973 s. 4)

(b) deductions for damage to or loss of goods, equipment or property belonging to or in the possession or control of the employer or expressly entrusted to an employee for custody, or for loss of money for which an employee is required to account, where such damage or loss is directly attributable to his neglect or default:

Provided that-

(i) the total amount recoverable by deduction in any one case shall not exceed the equivalent in value of the damage or loss suffered by the employer or $300, whichever is the less; and

(ii) the total of such deductions in any one wage period shall not exceed one quarter of the wages payable to the employee in respect of that wage period;

(c) deductions in respect of meals supplied by the employer at the request of the employee not exceeding the cost to the employer of such meals including expenses of production and service;

(d) deduction for accommodation provided by the employer for the employee or his family made in respect of the period such accommodation has been in the occupation of the employee or his family;

(e) deductions for the recovery of any advance or over-payment of wages made by the employer to the employee:
Provided that-

(i) except with the approval in writing of the Commissioner, no such deductions shall be made by way of discount, interest or any similar charge in consideration of such advance or over-payment; and

(ii) the total of such deductions in any one wage period shall not exceed one quarter of the wages payable to the employee in respect of that wage period;

(f) deductions, with the written consent of an employee, for the recovery of any loan made by the employer to the employee;

(g) deductions made at the request in writing of the employee in respect of contributions to be paid by him through the employer for the purpose of any medical benefit scheme, superannuation scheme, retirement scheme or thrift scheme lawfully established for the benefit of the employee or his dependants; (Amended 41 of 1990 s. 17)

(h) deductions which are required or authorized under any enactment to be made from the wages of an employee;

(i) other deductions made at the request in writing of the employee and with the approval of the Commissioner, which may be signified in respect of any particular case in writing or in general by notice in the Gazette.

(3) Except with the approval in writing of the Commissioner, the total of all deductions, excluding deductions in respect of absence from work or any deduction pursuant to an attachment order made under section 20(1) of the Guardianship of Minors Ordinance (Cap 13), section 9A(1) of the Separation and Maintenance Orders Ordinance (Cap 16) or section 28(1) of the Matrimonial Proceedings and Property Ordinance (Cap 192), made under this section from the wages of an employee in any one wage period shall not exceed one half of the wages payable to the employee in respect of the wage period. (Amended 69 of 1997 s. 34)

(4) Nothing in this section shall be construed as preventing an employer from paying to an employee at any time before the due date the amount of wages and other remuneration proportionate to work done and adjusting any amount so paid against the total amount payable at the end of the wage period.

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 32A

Employee's entitlement to employment protection VerDate:06/30/1997

PART VIA

EMPLOYMENT PROTECTION

(1) An employee may be granted remedies against his employer under this Part-

(a) where he has been employed under a continuous contract for a period of not less than 24 months ending with the relevant date and he is dismissed by the employer because the employer intends to extinguish or reduce any right, benefit or protection conferred or to be conferred upon the employee by this Ordinance;

(b) where he is employed under a continuous contract and the employer, without his consent and, in the absence of an express term in his contract of employment which so permits, varies the terms of his contract of employment because the employer intends to extinguish or reduce any right, benefit or protection conferred or to be conferred upon the employee by this Ordinance; or

(c) where he is dismissed by the employer other than for a valid reason within the meaning of section 32K and in contravention of-

(i) section 15(1), 21B(2)(b), 33(4B) or 72B(1);

(ii) section 6 of the Factories and Industrial Undertakings Ordinance (Cap 59); or

(iii) section 48 of the Employees' Compensation Ordinance (Cap 282), whether or not the employer has been convicted of an offence in respect of the dismissal.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1)(a), an employee who has been dismissed by the employer shall, unless a valid reason is shown for that dismissal within the meaning of section 32K, be taken to have been so dismissed because the employer intends to extinguish or reduce any right, benefit or protection conferred or to be conferred upon the employee by this Ordinance.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (1)(b), the variation of the terms of the contract of employment by the employer as referred to in that subsection shall, unless a valid reason is shown for that variation within the meaning of section 32K, be taken to be a variation of the terms of the contract of employment by the employer by reason that the employer intends to extinguish or reduce any right, benefit or protection conferred or to be conferred upon the employee by this Ordinance.

(4) For the purposes of subsection (1)(c)-

(a) it shall not be necessary for an employee to show in relation to-

(i) subsection (1)(c)(i), that his contract of employment was terminated by reason of his exercising any of the rights vested in an employee by or by virtue of section 21B(1) or by reason of the fact of his doing any of the things mentioned in section 72B(1);

(ii) subsection (1)(c)(ii), that his contract of employment was terminated by reason of the fact of his doing any of the things mentioned in section 6 of the Factories and Industrial Undertakings Ordinance (Cap 59); and

(b) an employee who has been dismissed by the employer shall be taken to have been dismissed without a valid reason unless a valid reason is shown for that dismissal within the meaning of section 32K.

(5) For the purposes of subsection (1)(c), an employee shall be entitled to remedies under this Part if and only if-

(a) in relation to a dismissal in contravention of section 21B(2)(b), the employee has exercised any of the rights mentioned in section 21B(1) within a period of 12 months immediately preceding such dismissal by the employer;

(b) in relation to a dismissal in contravention of section 72B(1), the employee has done any of the things mentioned in that section within a period of 12 months immediately preceding such dismissal by the employer;

(c) in relation to a dismissal in contravention of section 6 of the Factories and Industrial Undertakings Ordinance (Cap 59), the employee has done any of the things mentioned in that section within a period of 12 months immediately preceding such dismissal by the employer.

(Part VIA added 75 of 1997 s. 4)

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 32B
Dismissal by employer VerDate:06/30/1997

(1) For the purposes of section 32A(1)(a) and subject to this Part, where an employee is dismissed because the employer intends to extinguish or reduce his right to a severance payment or to a long service payment, he shall be taken to be dismissed by his employer if, but only if-

(a) the contract under which he is employed is terminated by the employer with or without notice or payment in lieu otherwise than in accordance with section 9;

(b) where under that contract he is employed for a fixed term, that term expires without being renewed under the same contract; or

(c) the employee terminates that contract with or without notice or payment in lieu, in circumstances such that he is entitled to terminate it without notice or payment in lieu in accordance with section 10 by reason of the employer's conduct.

(2) Subject to subsection (1), an employee shall be taken for the purposes of section 32A(1)(a) and (c) to be dismissed by his employer when the contract under which he is employed is terminated by the employer with or without notice or payment in lieu otherwise than in accordance with section 9.

(3) An employee shall not be taken for the purposes of section 32A(1)(a) to be dismissed by his employer if-

(a) his contract of employment is renewed, or he is re-engaged by the same employer under a new contract of employment; and

(b) the renewal or re-engagement takes effect immediately on the ending of his employment under the previous contract.

(4) For the purposes of the application of subsection (3) to a contract under which the employment ends on a rest day or holiday, the renewal or re-engagement shall be treated as taking effect immediately on the ending of the employment under the previous contract if it takes effect on or before the next day after that rest day or holiday.

(Part VIA added 75 of 1997 s. 4)

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 32C

General exclusions from right to remedies VerDate:06/30/1997

(1) An employee shall not be entitled to remedies under this Part if, not less than 7 days before the relevant date, the employer has offered to renew his contract of employment, or to re-engage him under a new contract so that-

(a) the provisions of the contract as renewed, or of the new contract, as the case may be, would not differ from the corresponding provisions of the contract as in force immediately before the dismissal;

and

(b) the renewal or re-engagement would take effect on or before the relevant date,
and the employee has unreasonably refused that offer.

(2) An employee shall not be entitled to remedies under this Part if, not less than 7 days before the relevant date, the employer has made to him an offer in writing to renew his contract of employment, or to re-engage him under a new contract, so that in accordance with the particulars specified in the offer the provisions of the contract as renewed, or of the new contract, as the case may be, would differ, wholly or in part, from the corresponding provisions of the contract as in force immediately before the dismissal, but-

(a) the offer constitutes an offer of suitable employment in relation to the employee;

(b) the offer constitutes an offer of employment no less favourable to the employee than hitherto; and

(c) the renewal or re-engagement would take effect on or before the relevant date,
and the employee has unreasonably refused that offer.

(3) Where the relevant date falls on a rest day or holiday, the references in subsections (1)(b) and (2)(c) to the relevant date shall be construed as references to the next day after that rest day or holiday.

(4) An employee shall not be entitled to remedies under this Part by reason of dismissal where, having been given notice of the termination of his contract of employment by his employer in accordance with section 6, he leaves the service of his employer before the expiration of that notice unless he so leaves-

(a) with the prior consent of the employer; or

(b) after having made a payment in lieu to the employer in accordance with section 7.

(5) Subsections (1) to (3) shall not apply where an employee is dismissed in any of the circumstances mentioned in section 32A(1)(c).

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 32D
Change of ownership of business VerDate:06/30/1997

(1) This section shall have effect where-

(a) a change occurs (whether by virtue of a sale or other disposition or by operation of law) in the ownership of a business for the purposes of which a person is employed, or of a part of such a business; and

(b) in connection with that change the person by whom the employee is employed immediately before the change occurs (in this section referred to as "the previous owner") terminates the employee's contract in accordance with section 6 or 7.

(2) If, by agreement with the employee, the person who immediately after the change occurs is the owner of the business or of the part of the business in question, as the case may be (in this section referred to as "the new owner"), renews the employee's contract of employment (with the substitution of the new owner for the previous owner) or re-engages him under a new contract of employment, section 32B(3) shall have effect as if the renewal or re-engagement had been a renewal or re-engagement by the previous owner (without any substitution of the new owner for the previous owner).

(3) If the new owner offers to renew the employee's contract of employment (with the substitution of the new owner for the previous owner) or to re-engage him under a new contract of employment, but the employee refuses the offer, section 32C(1) or (2) (as the case may be) shall have effect, subject to subsection (4), in relation to that offer and refusal as it would have had effect in relation to the like offer made by the previous owner and a refusal of that offer by the employee.

(4) For the purposes of the operation, in accordance with subsection (3), of section 32C(1) or (2) in relation to an offer made by the new owner-

(a) the offer shall not be treated as one whereby the provisions of the contract as renewed, or of the new contract, as the case may be, would differ from the corresponding provisions of the contract as in force immediately before the dismissal by reason only that the new owner would be substituted for the previous owner as the employer; and

(b) no account shall be taken of that substitution in determining whether the refusal of the offer was unreasonable.

(5) This section shall have effect (subject to the necessary modifications) in relation to a case where-

(a) the person by whom a business, or part of a business, is owned immediately before a change is one of the persons by whom (whether as partners, trustees or otherwise) it is owned immediately after the change; or

as this section has effect where the previous owner and the new owner are wholly different persons.

(6) Nothing in this section shall be construed as requiring any variation of a contract of employment by agreement between the parties to be treated as constituting a termination of the contract.

(Part VIA added 75 of 1997 s. 4)

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 32E

Associated companies VerDate:06/30/1997

(1) Where the employer is a company, any reference in section 32B, 32C or 32D to renewal or re-engagement by the employer shall be construed as a reference to renewal or re-engagement by that company or by any associated company, and any reference in section 32B, 32C or 32D to an offer made by the employer shall be construed as including a reference to an offer made by an associated company.

(2) Subsection (1) shall not affect the operation of section 32D in a case where the previous owner and the new owner are associated companies; and where that section applies, subsection (1) shall not apply.

(3) For the purposes of this section, 2 companies shall be taken to be associated companies if one is a subsidiary of the other, or both are subsidiaries of a third company, and "associated company" shall be construed accordingly.

(4) In this section, "company" (å...-å,) and "subsidiary" (é™,,å±-å...-å,) have the meanings respectively assigned to them by section 2 of the Companies Ordinance (Cap 32).

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 32J
Jurisdiction of Labour Tribunal VerDate:07/01/1997

Adaptation amendments retroactively made - see 25 of 1998 s. 2

(1) Subject to this section, the Labour Tribunal established under the Labour Tribunal Ordinance (Cap 25) shall have jurisdiction to inquire into, hear and determine a claim made by an employee under this Part in accordance with this Part and with that Ordinance.

(2) Notwithstanding section 9 of the Labour Tribunal Ordinance (Cap 25), the Labour Tribunal shall not have jurisdiction to inquire into, hear and determine a claim or part of a claim under this Part if the relevant date in respect of that claim falls more than 9 months before the date on which the claim is filed with the Registrar of the Labour Tribunal, unless the parties to the claim, by a memorandum signed by them and filed with the Registrar, have agreed that the Tribunal shall have jurisdiction.

(3) Where the Labour Tribunal has jurisdiction by virtue of subsection (2), the Labour Tribunal may transfer the claim to the Court of First Instance or the District Court under section 10 of the Labour Tribunal Ordinance (Cap 25) and thereupon the court may make all or any of the orders or awards provided under sections 32N to 32P but there is no jurisdiction in either of those courts apart from such a transfer and section 9(3) of the Labour Tribunal Ordinance (Cap 25) does not apply.

Reasons for the dismissal or the variation of the terms of the contract of employment VerDate:06/30/1997

For the purposes of this Part, it shall be a valid reason for the employer to show that the dismissal of the employee or the variation of the terms of the contract of employment with the employee was by the reason of-

- (a) the conduct of the employee;
- (b) the capability or qualifications of the employee for performing work of the kind which he was employed by the employer to do;
- (c) the redundancy of the employee or other genuine operational requirements of the business of the employer;
- (d) the fact that the employee or the employer or both of them would, in relation to the employment, be in contravention of the law, if the employee were to continue in the employment of the employer or, were to so continue without that variation of the terms of his contract of employment; or
- (e) any other reason of substance, which, in the opinion of the court or the Labour Tribunal, was sufficient cause to warrant the dismissal of the employee or the variation of the terms of that contract of employment.
(Part VIA added 75 of 1997 s. 4)

(1) On a claim for remedies under this Part, in determining whether or not an employer has shown that he has a valid reason for the dismissal of an employee or for the variation of the terms of the contract of employment with an employee within the meaning of section 32K, the court or the Labour Tribunal shall take into consideration the circumstances of the claim.

(2) Without affecting the generality of subsection (1), the circumstances of a claim include the length of time that the employee has been employed under that contract of employment with the employer as compared to the length of qualifying service required for the right, benefit or protection conferred or to be conferred upon the employee by this Ordinance which is capable of being extinguished or reduced by means of the dismissal or the variation of the terms of the contract of employment.

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 32M

Remedies for employment protection VerDate:06/30/1997

(1) On a claim for remedies under this Part if the court or Labour Tribunal finds that the employer has not shown a valid reason as specified under section 32K, the employer is deemed to intend to extinguish or reduce any right, benefit or protection conferred or to be conferred upon the employee by this Ordinance and the dismissal or the variation is deemed to be unreasonable and the court or Labour Tribunal may make an order under section 32N or an award of terminal payments under section 32O.

(2) On a claim for remedies under this Part if, in relation to the dismissal of an employee in any of the circumstances mentioned in section 32A(1)(c), the court or Labour Tribunal finds that the employer has not shown a valid reason for that dismissal within the meaning of section 32K and, upon that finding the employer, after having been given an opportunity to do so, refuses or fails to show that the dismissal is not in contravention of-

(a) section 15(1), 21B(2)(b), 33(4B) or 72B(1);

(b) section 6 of the Factories and Industrial Undertakings Ordinance (Cap 59); or

(c) section 48 of the Employees' Compensation Ordinance (Cap 282), then the court or Labour Tribunal may make an order under section 32N or an award of terminal payments under section 32O and, in the case where the court or Labour Tribunal does not make an order under section 32N, the court or Labour Tribunal may, whether or not it has made an award of terminal payments under section 32O, make an award of compensation under and in accordance with section 32P to be payable to the employee by the employer as it considers just and appropriate in the circumstances.

(3) An order or award made under this Part shall not affect the civil or criminal liability of an employer otherwise than under this Part in respect of the dismissal or the variation of the terms of the contract of employment.

(Part VIA added 75 of 1997 s. 4)

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 32N

Order for reinstatement and re-engagement VerDate:06/30/1997

(1) Subject to this section and to section 32M, an order under this section may be an order for reinstatement (in accordance with subsections

(4) and (5)) or an order for re-engagement (in accordance with subsections

(6) and (7)) as the court or Labour Tribunal may decide and on terms which it considers just and appropriate in the circumstances.

(2) The court or Labour Tribunal shall first consider whether to make an order for reinstatement, and if it decides not to make an order for reinstatement it shall then consider whether to make an order for re-engagement.

(3) Where the court or Labour Tribunal finds that an order for reinstatement or re-engagement, as the case may be, is appropriate, it shall explain to both the employer and the employee what order for reinstatement or re-engagement may be made, and shall ask them whether they agree to the court or Labour Tribunal making such an order. If the employer and the employee express such agreement, the court or Labour Tribunal shall make an order for reinstatement or re-engagement in accordance with that agreement.

(4) An order for reinstatement is an order that the employer shall treat the employee in all respects as if he had not been dismissed or as if there had been no such variation of the terms of the contract of employment, and on making such an order the court or Labour Tribunal shall specify the terms on which reinstatement is to take place including-

(a) any rights and privileges, including seniority and pension rights, which must be restored to the employee;

(b) the continuity of the period of employment of the employee shall not be treated as broken by any absence on his part from work between the relevant date or where the contract was terminated by the employer by payment in lieu of notice, the last date on which the employee renders services to the employer, and the date of reinstatement for the purpose of reckoning the existing and future entitlements under this Ordinance and his employment contract;

(c) the date by which the order must be complied with; and

(d) where the employer fails to comply with the order on or before the date specified in paragraph (c), the amount of terminal payments payable under section 32O and where appropriate, the amount of compensation payable under section 32P.

(5) On the making of an order for reinstatement, if the court or Labour Tribunal considers just and appropriate in the circumstances, it may specify-

(a) any amount payable by the employer to the employee in respect of any arrears of pay and statutory entitlements under this Ordinance which the employee might reasonably be expected to have had but for the dismissal or the variation of the terms of the contract of employment, for the period between the relevant date and the date of reinstatement; or

(b) any amount to be restored by the employee to the employer in respect of any statutory entitlements that the employee has been paid by the employer under this Ordinance and that the employee should not have had upon reinstatement.

(6) An order for re-engagement is an order that the employee shall be engaged by the employer, or by a successor of the employer or by an associated company, in an employment on terms comparable to his original terms of the employment or in other suitable employment, and on making such an order the court or Labour Tribunal shall specify the terms on which re-engagement is to take place including-

(a) the identity of the employer;

(b) the nature of the employment;

(c) the remuneration for the employment;

(d) any rights and privileges, including seniority and pension rights, which must be restored to the employee;

(e) the continuity of the period of employment of the employee shall not be treated as broken by any absence on his part from work between the relevant date or where the contract was terminated by the employer by payment in lieu of notice, the last date on which the employee renders services to the employer, and the date of re-engagement for the purpose of reckoning the existing and future entitlements under this Ordinance and his employment contract;

(f) the date by which the order must be complied with; and

(g) where the employer fails to comply with the order on or before the date specified in paragraph (f), the amount of terminal payments payable under section 32O and where appropriate, the amount of compensation payable under section 32P.

(7) On the making of an order for re-engagement, if the court or Labour Tribunal considers just and appropriate in the circumstances, it may specify-

(a) any amount payable by the employer to the employee in respect of any arrears of pay and statutory entitlements under this Ordinance which the employee might reasonably be expected to have had but for the dismissal or the variation of the terms of the contract of employment, for the period between the relevant date and the date of re-engagement; or

(b) any amount to be restored by the employee to the employer in respect of any statutory entitlements that the employee has been paid by the employer under this Ordinance and that the employee should not have had upon re-engagement.

(8) For the purposes of subsection (6)-

(a) "successor" (ç¹¼æ%ö; ä°°), in relation to the employer of an employee, means (subject to paragraph (b)) a person who in consequence of a change occurring (whether by virtue of a sale or other disposition or by operation of law) in the ownership of the undertaking, or of part of the undertaking, for the purposes of which the employee was employed, has become the owner of the undertaking or part;

(b) the definition in paragraph (a) has effect (subject to the necessary modifications) in relation to a case where-

(i) the person by whom an undertaking or part of an undertaking is owned immediately before a change is one of the persons by whom (whether as partners, trustees or otherwise) it is owned immediately after the change; or

(ii) the persons by whom an undertaking or part of an undertaking is owned immediately before a change (whether as partners, trustees or otherwise) include the persons by whom, or include one or more of the persons by whom, it is owned immediately after the change, as it has effect where the previous owner and the new owner are wholly different persons;

(c) "associated company" shall be construed in accordance with section 32E.

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 32O

Award of terminal payments VerDate:06/30/1997

(1) Subject to section 32M, if no order for reinstatement or re-engagement is made under section 32N, the court or Labour Tribunal may make an award of terminal payments to be payable by the employer to the employee as it considers just and appropriate in the circumstances.

(2) Terminal payments under this section refer to the statutory entitlements under this Ordinance that the employee has not been paid and that the employee is entitled to upon the termination of the contract of employment, or that he might reasonably be expected to be entitled to upon the termination of the contract of employment had he been allowed to continue with his original employment or original terms of the contract of employment to attain the minimum qualifying length of service required for the entitlements under this Ordinance.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), terminal payments include-

(a) any wages and other payments due to the employee under his contract of employment;

(b) any payment in lieu of notice payable under Part II, in the case of a dismissal without due notice;

(c) any end of year payment payable under Part IIA;

(d) any maternity leave pay or sum payable under Part III;

(e) any severance payment payable under Part VA or any long service payment payable under Part VB;

(f) any sickness allowance or sum payable under Part VII;

(g) any holiday pay payable under Part VIII;

(h) any annual leave pay payable under Part VIIIA; and

(i) any other payments due to the employee under this Ordinance and under his contract of employment.

(4) Notwithstanding that the employee has not attained the qualifying length of service required for the entitlements under this Ordinance, the court or Labour Tribunal may make an award for terminal payments under subsection (1) or (5) which shall be reckoned according to the actual length of time that the employee has been employed under that contract of employment with the employer.

(5) For the purposes of this section, where no order for reinstatement or re-engagement is made for an unreasonable variation of the terms of the contract of employment, the court or Labour Tribunal may treat the unreasonable variation of the terms of the contract of employment as an unreasonable dismissal by the employer and make an award for terminal payments and such terminal payments should be calculated up to the last date on which the employee renders services to the employer or the date on which an award of terminal payments under this section is made by the court or Labour Tribunal, whichever is the earlier.

(6) The respective provisions governing the calculation of the statutory entitlements shall apply to the calculation of the terminal payments; and, subject to subsection (4), in the case of an employee aged at the relevant date less than 45 years who at that date has less than 5 years service with his employer, any long service payment payable by virtue of subsection (3)(e) shall be calculated in the same manner as any long service payment payable under Part VB to an employee aged at the relevant date less than 45 years who at that date has 5 years service with his employer.

(7) Sections 31I and 31IA shall apply to any severance payment paid under this section.

(8) Sections 31Y, 31YAA and 31YA shall apply to any long service payment paid under this section.
(Part VIA added 75 of 1997 s. 4)

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 32P Award of compensation VerDate:06/30/1997

(1) Subject to section 32M, the court or Labour Tribunal may, whether or not it has made an award of terminal payments under section 32O, make an award of compensation to be payable to the employee by the employer as it considers just and appropriate in the circumstances, if-

(a) neither order for reinstatement nor order for re-engagement under section 32N is made; and

(b) the employee is dismissed by the employer in contravention of section 15(1), 21B(2)(b), 33(4B) or 72B(1), section 6 of the Factories and Industrial Undertakings Ordinance (Cap 59), or section 48 of the Employees' Compensation Ordinance (Cap 282), whether or not the employer has been convicted of the offence in respect of the dismissal.

(2) In determining an award of compensation and the amount of the award of compensation under this section, the court or Labour Tribunal shall take into account the circumstances of the claim.

(3) Without affecting the generality of subsection (2) the circumstances of a claim include-

(a) the circumstances of the employer and the employee;

(b) the length of time that the employee has been employed under the contract of employment with the employer;

- (c) the manner in which the dismissal took place;
 - (d) any loss sustained by the employee which is attributable to the dismissal;
 - (e) possibility of the employee obtaining new employment;
 - (f) any contributory fault borne by the employee; and
 - (g) any payments that the employee is entitled to receive in respect of the dismissal under this Ordinance, including any award of terminal payments under section 32O.
- (4) The amount of an award of compensation under this section shall be such amount as the court or Labour Tribunal considers just and appropriate but no such award shall exceed an amount of $150000.
- (5) The Commissioner for Labour may amend the amount specified in subsection (4) by notice in the Gazette.

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 33
Sickness allowance VerDate:04/12/2001

PART VII

SICKNESS ALLOWANCE

(1) An employee who has been employed by his employer under a continuous contract for a period of 1 month or more immediately preceding a sickness day shall be paid by his employer sickness allowance in accordance with this section and section 35. (Amended 1 of 1977 s. 2; 48 of 1984 s. 14)

(2) Subject to subsection (2A), an entitlement to sickness allowance shall accrue at the rate of-

(a) 2 paid sickness days for each completed month of the employee's employment under the continuous contract with his employer during the first 12 months of such employment; and

(b) 4 paid sickness days for each such month thereafter, and may be accumulated from time to time up to a maximum of 120 paid sickness days. (Replaced 57 of 1983 s. 5)

(2A) In the case of an employee who has been employed by his employer under a continuous contract for a period of 1 month or more immediately preceding the commencement* of the Employment (Amendment) Ordinance 1983 (57 of 1983), the employee's entitlement to sickness allowance shall, with effect from and without prejudice to the entitlement to sickness allowance accrued at such commencement, accrue at the rate prescribed by subsection (2) as amended by that Ordinance, and his employment for part of a month (if any) at such commencement shall be taken into account in calculating his entitlement to sickness allowance under and at the rate prescribed by that subsection. (Added 57 of 1983 s. 5)

(3) Subject to subsection (3C), an employee who takes less than 4 consecutive days as sickness days shall not be entitled to be paid sickness allowance in respect thereof. (Amended 22 of 1981 s. 7)

(3A) Where a female employee who is pregnant or who has given birth to a child and who is required to attend a medical examination in relation to her pregnancy or post confinement medical treatment, any day on which she is absent from work for such examination or treatment shall be a sickness day. (Added 22 of 1981 s. 7)

(3B) Where a female employee suffers a miscarriage, any day on which she is absent from work by reason of such miscarriage shall be a sickness day. (Added 22 of 1981 s. 7)

(3C) A female employee who has an entitlement to a sickness allowance under this section shall, notwithstanding subsection (3), be paid sickness allowance for every sickness day under subsection (3A) or

(3B), and subsections (4), (4A), (5), (5A) and (7) shall apply to any such sickness day and sickness allowance in respect thereof. (Added 22 of 1981 s. 7. Amended 57 of 1983 s. 5)

(4) Subject to subsections (5) and (5A), an employee who takes 4 or more consecutive days as sickness days shall be entitled to be paid sickness allowance for the total number of sickness days taken by him, but not exceeding the number of paid sickness days accumulated by him, under subsections (2) and (2A), immediately before the commencement of the sickness days taken. (Replaced 57 of 1983 s. 5)

(4A) The number of sickness days in respect of which an employee has been paid sickness allowance under subsection (4) shall be deducted in accordance with section 37(1B) from the total number of paid sickness days accumulated by him. (Added 57 of 1983 s. 5)

(4B) Subject to subsection (4BAA), an employer shall not terminate a contract of employment of an employee otherwise than in accordance with section 9 on any sickness day taken by the employee in respect of which sickness allowance is payable under this section. (Replaced 7 of 2001 s. 8)

(4BA) An employer who contravenes subsection (4B) shall be liable to pay to the dismissed employee-

(a) the sum which would have been payable if the contract had been terminated by the employer under section 7; and

(b) a further sum equivalent to the amount of wages which would have been accrued to the employee during a period of 7 days. (Added 103 of 1995 s. 13)

(4BAA) An employer who terminates the continuous contract of employment of an employee on any sickness day taken by the employee in respect of which sickness allowance is payable under this section shall be taken for the purposes of subsection (4B) to terminate the contract otherwise than in accordance with section 9-

(a) unless the contrary is proved; or

(b) subject to subsection (4BAB), unless the employer proves that-

(i) he purported to terminate the contract in accordance with that section; and

(ii) at the time of such termination, he reasonably believed that he had a ground to do so. (Added 7 of 2001 s. 8)

(4BAB) Subsection (4BAA)(b) shall not apply in the case of civil proceedings. (Added 7 of 2001 s. 8)

(4BB) Any employer who contravenes subsection (4B) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine at level 6. (Replaced 7 of 2001 s. 8)

(4C) Where an employer terminates a contract of employment of an employee on any sickness day taken by the employee, the employer shall, notwithstanding the termination of the contract of employment, pay to the employee sickness allowance for the total number of sickness days in respect of which the employee would have been entitled to be paid sickness allowance under subsection (4), and subsections (5), (5A) and (7) shall apply to any such sickness day and sickness allowance in respect thereof as if the contract of employment had not been terminated. (Added 57 of 1983 s. 5)

(5) An employer shall not be liable to pay sickness allowance to an employee in respect of any sickness day-

(a) subject to subsection (5A), unless such day is a day specified in the appropriate medical certificate as a day on which, in the opinion of the medical practitioner or registered dentist by whom the certificate is issued, the employee was, is or will be, as the case may be, unfit for work on account of sickness or injury; (Amended 57 of 1983 s. 5; 5 of 1995 s. 9)

(b) if, where the employer is operating a recognized scheme of medical treatment, the employee, at any time during the sickness or injury, unless he is a patient in a hospital, refuses without reasonable excuse to submit himself for treatment by the medical practitioner or registered dentist employed by the employer for the purposes of the scheme; (Amended 57 of 1983 s. 5; 5 of 1995 s. 9)

(c) if, where the employer is operating a recognized scheme of medical treatment, the employee, having submitted himself for treatment by the medical practitioner or registered dentist employed by the employer for the purposes of the scheme or being a patient in a hospital, at any time during the sickness or injury, without reasonable excuse, disregards the advice of such medical practitioner or registered dentist or the advice of the medical practitioner or registered dentist by whom he is being attended in the hospital; (Amended 57 of 1983 s. 5; 5 of 1995 s. 9)

(d) if the unfitness for work of the employee is caused by his serious and wilful misconduct;

(e) if the unfitness for work of the employee is on account of an injury or occupational disease in respect of which compensation is payable in accordance with the Employees' Compensation Ordinance (Cap 282);

(f) in respect of which the employee has received holiday pay.

(5A) Where an employee takes paid sickness days entered in category 2 of the record kept in respect of him under section 37(1A), he shall, if so required by his employer, produce to the employer, in respect of each such sickness day, a medical certificate that is issued by a medical practitioner or registered dentist attending the employee as an out-patient or in-patient in a hospital. (Added 57 of 1983 s. 5. Amended 5 of 1995 s. 9)

(6) For the purposes of this section-

(a) the expression "hospital" (é†«é™ç) means a hospital or specialist clinic maintained by the Crown, a public hospital within the meaning of the Hospital Authority Ordinance (Cap 113) or a hospital in respect of which a person is registered under the Hospitals, Nursing Homes and Maternity Homes Registration Ordinance (Cap 165); (Amended 81 of 1991 s.

(b) in subsection (5)(a), the expression "appropriate medical certificate" (é©ç•¶çš,,é†«ç”ÿè%œ~Žæ>,) means-

(i) where, on the day on which the certificate is issued, the employer is operating a recognized scheme of medical treatment, a certificate issued by the medical practitioner or registered dentist employed by the employer for the purposes of the scheme; (Amended 5 of 1995 s. 9)

(ii) where, on the day on which the certificate is issued, the employee is a patient in a hospital, a certificate issued by the medical practitioner or registered dentist attending the employee in the hospital; (Amended 5 of 1995 s. 9)

(iii) in any other cases, a certificate issued by any medical practitioner or registered dentist. (Replaced 57 of 1983 s. 5. Amended 5 of 1995 s. 9)

(7) Every medical certificate shall, in addition to specifying the number of days on which, in the opinion of the medical practitioner or registered dentist by whom it is issued, the employee was, is or will be, as the case may be, unfit for work, specify the nature of the sickness or injury on account of which, in the opinion of the medical practitioner or registered dentist, the employee was, is or will be, as the case may be, unfit for work and, in the case of a medical certificate produced by an employee for the purposes of subsection (5A), the medical certificate shall, if so required by his employer, contain or be accompanied by a brief record of the investigation carried out and the treatment prescribed by the medical practitioner or registered dentist. (Amended 57 of 1983 s. 5; 5 of 1995 s. 9)

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 34

Recognized scheme of medical treatment VerDate:06/30/1997

(1) The Director may recognize for the purposes of this Ordinance a scheme of medical treatment operated by an employer, if he is satisfied that each employee, who is qualified to be paid sickness allowance by the employer by whom the scheme is operated, is provided, without expense to the employee, by a medical practitioner or registered dentist with such medical treatment as an out-patient as the Director considers reasonable. (Amended 5 of 1995 s. 10)

(2) The Director may, having given to the employer by whom the scheme is operated not less than 1 month's notice of his intention so to do, withdraw his recognition of any scheme of medical treatment.

(3) Whenever the Director has recognized, or has withdrawn his recognition of, any scheme of medical treatment, he shall publish a notice thereof in the Gazette.

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 35

Rate of sickness allowance VerDate:06/30/1997

(1) Subject to subsection (3), the daily rate of sickness allowance shall be a sum equivalent to four-fifths of the wages which the employee would have earned if he had worked on the sickness day. (Amended 48 of 1984 s. 15; 60 of 1996 s. 2)

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) and subject to subsection (3), where an employee is employed on piece rates or where the daily wages of an employee vary from day to day, the sickness allowance shall be a sum equivalent to four-fifths of the average daily wage earned by the employee, and for the purposes of this subsection the average daily wage shall be the average of the daily wages earned by the employee on each day on which he worked during every complete wage period, comprising not less than 28 days and not more than 31 days, immediately preceding or expiring on the first sickness day. (Replaced 48 of 1984 s. 15. Amended 60 of 1996 s. 2)

(3) Where a contract of employment of an employee is terminated, sickness allowance payable under section 33(4C) shall be calculated in accordance with subsection (1) or (2) whichever is applicable to the employee at the time his contract of employment is terminated. (Added 48 of 1984 s. 15)

Time for payment of sickness allowance VerDate:06/30/1997

- (1) Except in the case of an employee who is normally paid his wages daily, sickness allowance shall be paid to the employee or his duly appointed agent in the manner and at the place specified in section 26 not later than the day on which the employee is next paid his wages.
- (2) In the case of an employee who is normally paid his wages daily, sickness allowance shall be paid to him or his duly appointed agent in the manner and at the place specified in section 26 at least once in every 7 days.
- (3) Where a contract of employment of an employee is terminated, sickness allowance payable under section 33(4C) shall be paid to that employee in accordance with subsection (1) or (2) whichever is applicable to the employee as if the contract of employment had not been terminated.
(Added 48 of 1984 s. 16)

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 37

Employer to keep record of sickness days VerDate:06/30/1997

- (1) Every employer shall keep a record-
 - (a) of the date of commencement and termination of the employment of each employee;
 - (b) in accordance with subsection (1A), of all paid sickness days accumulated by each employee under section 33;
 - (c) of all paid sickness days taken by each employee in respect of which sickness allowance is payable under section 33, and such sickness days shall be deducted in accordance with subsection (1B); and
 - (d) of all sickness allowance paid to each employee and the sickness days in respect of which the sickness allowance was paid.
(Replaced 57 of 1983 s.6)

(1A) A record kept for the purposes of subsection (1)(b) shall contain the following heads and details-

Category 1: in which shall be entered the number of paid sickness days accumulated by an employee-

(a) under section 33(2A); and

(b) in respect of each month under section 33(2), but so however that the total number of paid sickness days in this category does not at the time of entry exceed 36 days; and

Category 2: in which shall be entered every paid sickness day in excess of 36 days which cannot be entered in category 1, but so however that the total number of paid sickness days in this category does not at the time of entry exceed 84 days, and references in this section to category 1 and category 2 shall be construed as references to category 1 and category 2 respectively in this subsection. (Added 57 of 1983 s. 6)

(1B) The number of paid sickness days taken consecutively by an employee shall be deducted from the total number of paid sickness days in category 1 accumulated by him immediately before the commencement of those sickness days and where the number of paid sickness days taken exceeds the total number of paid sickness days in that category, the excess paid sickness days shall be deducted from the total number of paid sickness days in category 2 accumulated by him immediately before such commencement. (Added 57 of 1983 s. 6)

(2) If an employer maintains a record under subsection (1)-

(a) an employee who returns to work after a sickness day shall, as soon as is practicable but not later than 7 days after his return to work, sign the entry in the record specifying the days on which he has been absent;

(b) an employee shall be entitled to inspect that part of the record which relates to him at any reasonable time during working hours and, where an employee has ceased to be employed by his employer, he may inspect that part of the record which relates to him at any reasonable time during working hours in the period of 2 months next following the date on which he ceased to be employed.

(3) If an employer fails to maintain the record under subsection (1) in respect of any employee employed by him, or if the record is lost or destroyed, the employee shall, notwithstanding any sickness allowance paid to him by his employer under section 33, be entitled to paid sickness days for each completed month of his employment in accordance with section 33. (Amended 57 of 1983 s. 6)

(k) National Day, being the first day of October. (Added 137 of 1997 s. 3. Amended 35 of 1998 s. 5)

(1A) The operation of subsection (1)(da) shall be suspended for the year 1998. (Added 137 of 1997 s. 3)

(2) An employer may, instead of granting an employee a holiday on a statutory holiday, grant the employee an alternative holiday on another day (which is not a statutory holiday or a substituted holiday) within the period of 60 days immediately preceding or next following the statutory holiday, if the employer has notified the employee, either orally or in writing or by notice posted in a conspicuous place in the place of employment, of the day on which he will be granted the alternative holiday-

(a) where the alternative holiday is to be taken on a day within the period of 60 days immediately preceding the statutory holiday, not less than 48 hours before that day; or

(b) where the alternative holiday is to be taken on a day within the period of 60 days next following the statutory holiday, not less than 48 hours before the statutory holiday.

(2A) Subsection (2) shall apply to and in relation to a holiday under subsection (4) as it applies to and in relation to a statutory holiday. (Added 137 of 1997 s. 3)

(3) An employer and his employee may agree that another day shall be substituted for a statutory holiday or an alternative holiday or a holiday under subsection (4), if such substituted holiday falls within the period of 30 days of such statutory holiday, alternative holiday or holiday under subsection (4). (Amended 27 of 1982 s. 2)

(4) Where-

(a) a statutory holiday falls on a rest day, or in the case of an employee who is a young person, on a day on which, by virtue of the Employment of Young Persons (Industry) Regulations (Cap 57 sub. leg.), the employment of the employee in an industrial undertaking is not allowed, the employee shall be granted a holiday on the next day thereafter which is not a statutory holiday or an alternative holiday or a substituted holiday or a rest day; or (Amended 7 of 2001 s. 9)

(b) a statutory holiday falls on the same day as that of another statutory holiday, an employee shall be granted a holiday on the next day thereafter which is not a statutory holiday or an alternative holiday or a substituted holiday or a rest day. (Replaced 137 of 1997 s. 3)

#(5)-(9) (Repealed 137 of 1997 s. 3)
(Amended 53 of 1976 s. 2; 137 of 1997 s. 3)

Note:

* For additional statutory holidays in 1981, 1986 and 1997, see 39 of 1981, 35 of 1986, 84 of 1997 and s. 2(1) of 111 of 1997.

For savings provisions, please see s. 6 of 137 of 1997.

Subject to section 12(11), an employee who has been employed by his employer under a continuous contract for a period of 3 months immediately preceding a statutory holiday shall, not later than the day on which the employee is next paid his wages after that holiday, be paid by his employer holiday pay at the rate specified in section 41, whether the employee takes a holiday on the statutory holiday or on an alternative or substituted holiday or a holiday under section 39(4).

Definitions (Part VIIIA) VerDate:06/30/1997

PART VIIIA

ANNUAL LEAVE WITH PAY

In this Part, in relation to an employee-
"appropriate day" (é©ç"æ—¥) means-

(a) where the employee becomes entitled under section 41F(3) to any annual leave, the first day of the close down as regards which the entitlement arises or where he becomes so entitled more than once in any period of 12 months, the first day of the more or most recent, as appropriate, of such close downs; or

(b) where the employee does not become so entitled-

(i) the day following the end of the employee's last (or only) leave year; or

(ii) where there is no such leave year, the day on which his employment commenced;

"final employment period" (æœ€µ,âf±â,æœÿ) means the period beginning on the appropriate day and ending on the termination of his employment;

"leave year" (â‡æÿâ¹), unless the context otherwise requires, means any period of 12 months- (Amended 61 of 1993 s. 6)

(a) commencing on-

(i) in case the employee is entitled under section 41F(3) to any annual leave, the first day of the close down as regards which the entitlement arose; or

(ii) in the case of any other employee, the day on which his employment commenced; or

(b) commencing on an anniversary of such day;

"notional leave pay" (â‡â@šâ‡æÿè-ªé...¬) means an amount equal to the annual leave pay which would have been due to the employee had his contract of employment terminated, or been terminated, on the appropriate day's anniversary next following such contract's actual termination and had that pay been calculated by reference to his wages at the time of the actual termination.

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 41AA

Annual leave VerDate:12/12/1997

(1) Subject to this Part, every employee who has been in employment under a continuous contract for not less than 12 months shall, in respect of each leave year, be entitled to paid leave (in this Part referred to as "annual leave") calculated in accordance with subsection (2).

(2) Where an employee has been in employment under a continuous contract for a period specified in column (1) of the Table to this section, the amount of annual leave to which he shall be entitled in respect of any leave year in that period shall be the number of days specified in column (2) of such Table in respect of the period.

(3) Subject to subsection (5)(c), times at which annual leave is granted shall be determined by the employer after consultation with the employee concerned or his representatives.

(4) An employer shall give an employee not less than 14 days' notice in writing of the time he has determined for the grant of a period of annual leave, except where a shorter period of notice is agreed to by the employer and employee.

(5) Annual leave to which an employee is entitled-

(a) shall be granted by his employer and be taken by the employee within the period of 12 months beginning immediately after the expiration of the leave year to which it relates;

(b) subject to paragraph (c), shall be for an unbroken period; and

(c) subject to subsection (9), shall, if the employee so requests his employer, be divided as follows-

(i) where the leave entitlement does not exceed 10 days, it shall be granted on consecutive days except that not more than 3 days of the period of leave may be granted on any day or days (whether consecutive or not); and

(ii) where such entitlement exceeds 10 days, 7 days of the period of leave shall be granted on consecutive days and the remaining leave may be granted on any day or days (whether consecutive or not).

(6) If a rest day or holiday falls within any period of annual leave granted in accordance with this section, it shall be counted as annual leave and another rest day or holiday shall be substituted in accordance with section 18(5) or section 39(2), (2A), (3) or (4), as the case may require. (Amended 137 of 1997 s. 5)

(7) No period of total incapacity for work by reason of sickness or injury occurring during a period of annual leave shall count as part of that annual leave unless it commences after the commencement of the period of annual leave.

(8) Where-

(a) an employer continues to employ an employee after the expiration of a period during which annual leave should have been granted to him and the employer has not granted that leave, then at the option of the employee but subject to paragraph (b) the employer shall (whether or not proceedings have been taken for an offence under section 63(4)(e))-

(i) pay to the employee, in addition to any pay due to him, compensation equal in amount to the annual leave pay which he would have received had the leave been granted so as to end on the expiration of the period during which it should have been granted; or

(ii) grant the employee paid leave equal to the leave which should have been granted;

(b) an employee opts under paragraph (a) to take paid leave, he shall take the leave on such day or days as may be agreed to by the employer and him or, if there is no such agreement, as shall be specified by the employer.

(9) Where-

(a) an employer proposes to close down his business or part thereof for the purpose of granting annual leave to any of his employees; and

(b) notice of the proposed close down is duly given under section 41F; and

(c) such close down will not result in any person who has been in employment in the business under a continuous contract for 12 months or more having to take annual leave on fewer consecutive days than-

(i) where his leave entitlement does not exceed 10 days, the number of consecutive days' leave that would be required to be granted under subsection (5)(c)(i) were his leave being divided under that subsection;

(ii) 7 days where his leave entitlement exceeds 10 days, then nothing in this section shall prevent or restrict, or be construed as preventing or restricting, the close down.

(10) For the avoidance of doubt it is declared that annual leave is, and shall be granted, in addition to the rest days, holidays and maternity leave to which an employee is entitled under this Ordinance.

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 41AB

Option for common leave year VerDate:06/30/1997

(1) Notwithstanding anything in this Part, an employer may, at his option, elect to use a 12 month period determined by him as the leave year for the purpose of calculating the annual leave of all of his employees and, in that case, each of his employees is entitled to an annual leave under this Part determined in accordance with this section.

(2) An employer shall, before making an election under this section, give 1 month's notice-

(a) to each of his employees in writing; or

(b) by posting a notice in a conspicuous place in the place of employment, stating his intention to make the election, the 12 month period he intends to elect to use and the date from which he will commence using it.

(3) Where an employer makes an election under this section, he shall thenceforth use that 12 month period as the leave year for the purpose of calculating the annual leave entitlement of all of his employees and, where an employee has not been in employment under a continuous contract for the full period of a leave year-

(a) the employer shall calculate the leave entitlement on a pro rata basis, based on the number of calendar days between the day the employee commenced employment and the end of the leave year, divided by 365, and any fraction of a day resulting from the calculation shall be counted as a full day's leave; and

(b) the employee may, at his option-

(i) after consultation with his employer, take his leave entitlement for the pro rata portion referred to in paragraph (a); or

(ii) carry it forward and combine it with his leave entitlement for the next full leave year.

(4) Where an employee was already employed on the day an employer commences using a 12 month period for calculating annual leave for all of his employees under this section-

(a) the employee is entitled to an annual leave calculated on a pro rata basis, based on the number of calendar days between the day he commenced employment (or the anniversary of such day, as the case may be) and the day preceding the day on which the employer commenced using the 12 month period under this section, divided by 365, and any fraction of a day resulting from the calculation shall be counted as a full day's leave; and

(b) the employee may, at his option-

(i) after consultation with his employer, take his leave entitlement for the pro rata portion referred to in paragraph (a); or

(ii) carry it forward and combine it with his leave entitlement for the first full leave year calculated in accordance with this section.

(5) Where section 41F applies to an employer who has made an election under this section-

(a) the annual leave granted shall be in respect of the leave year immediately preceding the period of the close down; and

(b) section 41F(3) to (6) shall not apply to the calculation of the leave entitlement.

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 41B

Payment of annual leave pay VerDate:06/30/1997

Where an employee is granted any period of annual leave, the employer shall pay him annual leave pay in respect of that period not later than the day on which he is next paid his wages after that period.

Rate of annual leave pay VerDate:06/30/1997

(1) Annual leave pay shall, subject to subsection (2), be a sum equivalent to the wages which the employee would have earned if he had worked every day during the period of annual leave. (Amended 11 of 1979 s. 3)

(2) Where an employee is employed on piece rates or where the wages of an employee vary from day to day, the annual leave pay shall be calculated by reference to the average daily wage earned by the employee, and for the purposes of this subsection the average daily wage shall be the average of the daily wages earned by the employee on each day on which he worked during every complete wage period, comprising not less than 28 days and not more than 31 days, immediately preceding or expiring on the first day of the annual leave or on the day on which the contract of employment terminates, as the case may be.
(Amended 48 of 1984 s. 20)

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 41D

Payment of annual leave pay on cesser of employment VerDate:06/30/1997

(1) Where-

(a) an employee ceases to be employed; and

(b) annual leave is due to him, the person by whom he was formerly employed shall, as soon as practicable and in any case not later than 7 days after such cesser, pay to him in respect of the annual leave compensation equal in amount to the annual leave pay he would have received had the leave so due been granted immediately after such cesser.

(2) Where-

(a) an employee ceases to be employed;

(b) the cesser occurs otherwise than on the expiration of a leave year of the employee;

(c) his contract of employment terminates or is terminated otherwise than under section 9 for any reason whatsoever (including his resignation); and

(d) the termination occurs at least 3 months after the appropriate day, he shall, as soon as practicable and in any case not later than 7 days after the termination, be paid by the person by whom he was formerly employed, in addition to any sum due under subsection (1), a sum equal in amount to that which bears to the notional leave pay the same proportion as the number of days in the final employment period bears to 365.

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 41E

Restriction on pay in lieu of leave VerDate:06/30/1997

(1) Where an employee is entitled to annual leave, subject to sections 41AA(8)(a) and 41D and to subsection (2), no remuneration shall be paid to him by his employer in lieu of his taking all or any part of the annual leave.

(2) Where an employee is entitled to more than 10 days' annual leave in respect of a particular leave year, he may, in lieu of taking part of the leave, work on not more than the number of days by which such annual leave exceeds 10, and in case an employee so agrees, the amount payable to him in respect of any such day shall not be less than the aggregate of the following-

(a) the wages receivable by him in respect of the period worked on that day; and

(b) the annual leave pay he would have received had he been granted leave on that day.

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 41F

Annual leave shutdown VerDate:06/30/1997

(1) Every employer who intends to close down his business or part thereof for the purpose of granting annual leave to any of his employees shall give one month's notice in writing of his intention so to do to every employee who will as a result have to take annual leave or otherwise stop work during the period of closure.

(2) The provisions of subsection (1) shall be deemed to be complied with if not later than one month before commencement of the period of closure, the employer exhibits in a conspicuous place in the place of employment notice of the closure and of the names of all employees who will as a result have to take annual leave or otherwise stop working, or in lieu of such names, a description or other details enabling such employees to be clearly identified.

(3) Every person who is an employee at the commencement of the period during which the business or part thereof is closed down for the purpose specified in subsection (1), and who is not otherwise entitled to annual leave pay in respect of any day during that period, shall, as regards the period beginning on the appropriate day and ending on the day preceding the first day of the close down, be entitled to annual leave calculated in accordance with subsection (4). (Amended 53 of 1990 s. 4)

(4) The amount of annual leave to which an employee is entitled under subsection (3) shall be determined as follows-

(a) a calculation shall be made using the formula

$$A \frac{\tilde{A} - B}{365}$$

where-

A is the number of days in the period beginning on the relevant day and ending on the day preceding the first day of the close down as regards which the entitlement arose; and

B is the annual leave to which the employee would be entitled under this Ordinance had there been no close down (or partial close down) of the business concerned and had he been in his employment under a continuous contract for the period of 12 months beginning on the relevant day;

(b) where the result is not a whole number, the result shall be rounded up to the next whole number; and

(c) (i) if the result or, where appropriate, the result when rounded up

(which result in this section referred to as "the calculated number") equals or is less than the number of days occurring during the relevant close down being days and as regards none of which the employee is, apart from subsection (3), entitled to annual leave (which days are in this section referred to as "relevant closure days"), the amount of annual leave shall equal the number of relevant closure days; or

(ii) if the calculated number exceeds the number of relevant closure days, the number of days of annual leave shall equal the calculated number.
(Added 53 of 1990 s. 4)

(5) Where an employee is entitled to annual leave under subsection (3) and such leave exceeds the relevant closure days, unless the employee and his employer otherwise agree, the remaining annual leave shall be granted by the employer and be taken by the employee during an unbroken period beginning on the working day next following the last day of the relevant close down or, in case there is only 1 day's remaining annual leave, it shall be so given and taken on such working day. (Added 53 of 1990 s. 4)

(6) For the avoidance of doubt it is hereby declared that where an employee is entitled to annual leave under subsection (3), no period shall, by reason only of the entitlement, be regarded for the purposes of this Ordinance as being a leave year. (Added 53 of 1990 s. 4)

(7) In this section "the relevant day" (æœ%œ—œæ—¥æœÿ) means, in relation to an employee-

(a) where the employee previously became entitled under subsection (3) to any annual leave in the immediately preceding period of 12 months, the first day of the close down as regards which the entitlement arose, to where he became so entitled more than once in such period of 12 months, the first day of the more or most recent, as appropriate, of such close downs; or

(b) in any other case-

(i) the day following the end of the employee's last (or only) leave year;
or

(ii) where there is no such leave year, the day on which his employment commenced. (Added 53 of 1990 s. 4)

"nominated sub-contractor" (æE‡á@šæ¬;æ%ö¿á^åá•†) means-

(a) any person-

(i) who enters into a contract, express or implied, with a principal contractor to perform all or any part of the work which the principal contractor has contracted to perform; or

(ii) who enters into a contract, express or implied, to perform all or any part of the work which a person referred to in sub-paragraph (i) has contracted to perform, who is nominated by an owner or occupier of property, or by an agent or authorized architect, surveyor or civil, municipal or structural engineer of such owner or occupier; and

(b) any person who subsequently enters into a contract, express or implied, to perform all or any part of the work agreed to be performed by a nominated sub-contractor within the meaning of paragraph (a) of this definition;

"principal contractor" (ç, ½æ%oçâ^ðâ•†) means a person who enters into a contract directly with an owner or occupier of property, or with an agent or authorized architect, surveyor or civil, municipal or structural engineer of such owner or occupier, to perform any work for such owner or occupier;

"sub-contractor" (æ¬;æ%oçâ^ðâ•†) means-

(a) any person who enters into a contract, express or implied, with a principal contractor to perform all or any part of the work which the principal contractor has contracted to perform; and

(b) any other person who enters into a contract, express or implied, to perform all or any part of the work which a sub-contractor within the meaning of paragraph (a) has contracted to perform, but does not include a nominated sub-contractor;

"work" (â·¥ä½œ) means-

(a) building works; and

(b) the supply of manual labour for the purposes of or in connection with building works.

(2) For the purposes of this Part-

(a) a sub-contractor is a superior sub-contractor to another sub-contractor if all or any part of the work which he contracted to perform is sub-contracted to that other sub-contractor, whether or not such work is performed by that other sub-contractor or further sub-contracted by that other sub-contractor;

(b) a nominated sub-contractor is a superior nominated sub-contractor to another nominated sub-contractor if all or any part of the work which he contracted to perform is sub-contracted to that other nominated sub-contractor, whether or not such work is performed by that other nominated sub-contractor or further sub-contracted by that other nominated sub-contractor.

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 43C

Liability of principal contractor and superior sub-contractor to pay wages of employees of sub-contractors
VerDate:06/30/1997

Sub-contractor's employees' wages

(1) Subject to this Part, if any wages become due to an employee who is employed by a sub-contractor on any work which the sub-contractor has contracted to perform, and such wages are not paid within the period specified in section 23, 24 or 25, as the case may be, such wages shall be payable to the employee-

(a) where the sub-contractor has contracted with the principal contractor, by the principal contractor; and

(b) where the sub-contractor has contracted with a superior sub-contractor, by the principal contractor and every superior sub-contractor to the sub-contractor, jointly and severally.

(2) The liability of a principal contractor and of a principal contractor and superior sub-contractor or superior sub-contractors jointly and severally under subsection (1) shall be limited-

(a) to the wages of an employee whose employment relates wholly to the work which the principal contractor has contracted to perform and whose place of employment is wholly on the site of the building works; and

(b) to the wages due to such an employee for 2 months without any deductions under this Ordinance and such months shall be the first 2 months of the period in respect of which the wages are due to the employee.

(3) Subject to subsection (4) the wages payable under subsection

(1) shall be paid by the principal contractor or superior sub-contractor, as the case may be, not later than 30 days after the date on which a notice under section 43D is received by him or service thereof is deemed to be effected on him.

(4) Where any claim in respect of the wages payable under subsection (1) is filed with the Minor Employment Claims Adjudication Board or Labour Tribunal and an award or order is made in favour of the employee, the wages shall be paid within such time as the Minor Employment Claims Adjudication Board or Labour Tribunal may direct, or, in the absence of any direction, not later than 30 days after the making of the award or order. (Amended 61 of 1994 s. 53)

Recovery of wages paid by principal contractor or superior sub-contractor VerDate:06/30/1997

(1) If a principal contractor or superior sub-contractor pays to an employee any wages under section 43C, the wages so paid shall be a debt due by the employer of that employee to the principal contractor or superior sub-contractor, as the case may be.

(2) Any principal contractor or superior sub-contractor who pays to an employee any wages under section 43C may either-

(a) claim contribution from every superior sub-contractor to the employee's employer or from the principal contractor and every other such superior sub-contractor as the case may be; or

(b) deduct by way of set-off the amount paid by him from any sum due or which may become due-

(i) to any sub-contractor to whom he has sub-contracted all or any part of work that he contracted to perform being work upon which the employee was employed, and

(ii) in respect of the work that he has sub-contracted.

(3) For the purposes of this section any amount-

(a) paid by a principal contractor or a superior sub-contractor by way of contribution under subsection (2)(a), or

(b) deducted by a principal contractor or a superior sub-contractor from any sum due by him by way of set-off under subsection (2)(b), shall be deemed to be payment by the principal contractor or superior sub-contractor who has paid the amount by way of contribution or by the superior sub-contractor who has suffered a deduction from any sum due to him by way of set-off to an employee of wages under section 43C.

Liability of superior nominated sub-contractor to pay wages of employees of nominated sub-contractors

VerDate:06/30/1997

Nominated sub-contractor's employees' wages

(1) Subject to this Part, if any wages become due to an employee who is employed by a nominated sub-contractor on any work which the nominated sub-contractor has contracted to perform, and such wages are not paid within the period specified in section 23, 24 or 25, as the case may be, such wages shall be payable to the employee by every superior nominated sub-contractor to the nominated sub-contractor by whom the employee is employed, jointly and severally.

(2) The liability of a superior nominated sub-contractor or superior nominated sub-contractors jointly and severally under subsection

(1) shall be limited-

(a) to the wages of an employee whose employment relates wholly to the work which the main nominated sub-contractor has contracted to perform whether or not his place of employment is on the site of the building works; and

(b) to the wages due to such an employee for 2 months without any deductions under this Ordinance and such months shall be the first 2 months of the period in respect of which the wages are due to the employee.

(3) Subject to subsection (4) the wages payable under subsection

(1) shall be paid by the superior nominated sub-contractor not later than 30 days after the date on which a notice under section 43H is received by him or service thereof is deemed to be effected on him.

(4) Where any claim in respect of the wages payable under subsection (1) is filed with the Minor Employment Claims Adjudication Board or Labour Tribunal and an award or order is made in favour of the employee, the wages shall be paid within such time as the Minor Employment Claims Adjudication Board or Labour Tribunal may direct, or, in the absence of any direction, not later than 30 days after the making of the award or order. (Amended 61 of 1994 s. 54)

Employer to supply information at request of employee VerDate:06/30/1997

(1) Where an employer who is a nominated sub-contractor fails to pay, within the period specified in section 23, 24 or 25, as the case may be, any wages due to an employee employed by him on work which he has contracted to perform, he shall within 7 days of the receipt of a written request made by the employee supply to the employee the name and address of the main nominated sub-contractor and every superior nominated sub-contractor to him and shall, within such 7 days' period, deliver a copy of the written request to the main nominated sub-contractor and every superior nominated sub-contractor to him.

(2) An employer who without reasonable excuse fails to comply with subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine at level 5. (Amended 24 of 1988 s. 2; 103 of 1995 s. 17)

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 43J

Recovery of wages paid by superior nominated sub-contractor VerDate:06/30/1997

(1) If a superior nominated sub-contractor pays to an employee any wages under section 43G, the wages so paid shall be a debt due by the employer of that employee to the superior nominated sub-contractor.

(2) Any superior nominated sub-contractor who pays to an employee any wages under section 43G may either-

(a) claim contribution from every other superior nominated sub-contractor to the employee's employer; or

(b) deduct by way of set-off the amount paid by him from any sum due or which may become due-

(i) to any nominated sub-contractor to whom he has sub-contracted all or any part of work that he contracted to perform being work upon which the employee was employed; and

(ii) in respect of the work that he has sub-contracted.

(3) For the purposes of this section any amount-

(a) paid by a superior nominated sub-contractor by way of contribution under subsection (2)(a), or

(b) deducted by a superior nominated sub-contractor from any sum due by him by way of set-off under subsection (2)(b), shall be deemed to be payment by the superior nominated sub-contractor who has paid the amount by way of contribution or has suffered a deduction from any sum due to him by way of set-off to an employee of wages under section 43G.

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 43K

Cessation of employer's liability for wages paid by principal contractor, superior sub-contractor or superior nominated sub-contractor VerDate:06/30/1997

General

Where any wages are paid to an employee by a principal contractor or superior sub-contractor under section 43C or by a superior nominated sub-contractor under section 43G, the liability of the employer shall, subject to sections 43F(1) and 43J(1), cease.

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 43L

Interpretation and application of Part VerDate:02/28/2003

PART XII

EMPLOYMENT AGENCIES

(1) In this Part, unless the context otherwise requires-

"certificate of exemption" (è±å...è%æ~Žæ>,) means a certificate issued under section 54;

"employment agency" (è·æ¥ä»<ç'¹æ%œ) means a person who operates a business the purpose of which is-

(a) to obtain employment for another person; or

(b) to supply the labour of another person to an employer, whether or not the person who operates the business will derive any pecuniary or other material advantage from either the employer or such other person;

(Amended 41 of 1990 s. 21)

"licence" (ç%œç...§) means a licence issued under section 52 and "licensee" (æœç%œ ä°°) shall be construed accordingly.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), this Part shall apply to any employment agency which is carried on in Hong Kong, whether the employment is to take place within or outside Hong Kong.

(3) This Part shall not apply to any employment agency-

(a) which is carried on or subvented by Her Majesty's Government or the Hong Kong Government;

(b) which is carried on under the terms of a permit to maintain a crew department granted or deemed to be granted under the Merchant Shipping (Seafarers) Ordinance (Cap 478); (Amended 44 of 1995 s. 143)

(c) (Repealed 41 of 1990 s. 21)

(d) (Repealed 10 of 1980 s. 4)

(e) which is carried on by an employer for the sole purpose of recruiting persons for employment on his own behalf;

(f) which is carried on by a contractor, or sub-contractor, who employs any person on work for another person;

(g) which is carried on by the proprietor of a newspaper or other publication if the operation of an employment agency is non-profit making and is not the principal purpose of the publication of the newspaper or other publication;

(h) which is-

(i) non-profit making;

(ii) wholly maintained or managed by the owner, staff or students of a school, college, university or other educational institution recognized by the Permanent Secretary for Education and Manpower; and (Amended 3 of 2003 s. 41)

(iii) carried on solely for or in connection with the employment of the students or graduates of such school, college, university or other educational institution; or

(i) subject to any regulations which may be applicable thereto, in respect of which a certificate of exemption has been issued.

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 51

Prohibitions in respect of the operation of employment agencies VerDate:06/30/1997

(1) No person shall operate, manage or assist in the management of an employment agency unless-

(a) he is the holder of a licence or certificate of exemption issued in respect of the employment agency; or

(b) he is in the employment of the holder of a licence or certificate of exemption.

(2) No person shall operate, manage or assist in the management of an employment agency at any place other than the place of business specified in the licence or certificate of exemption issued in respect of the employment agency.

(3) (Repealed 28 of 1992 s. 2)

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 52

Application for and issue of licences VerDate:06/30/1997

(1) The Commissioner may issue a licence to operate an employment agency to any person who applies therefor in such manner as may be prescribed.

(1A) Where the applicant for a licence is a company, the application shall be submitted by a director of the company on its behalf. (Added 28 of 1992 s. 3)

(2) A licence issued under this section shall-

(a) be in a form determined by the Commissioner; and (Replaced 28 of 1992 s. 3)

(b) specify the place of business of the employment agency in respect of which it is issued. (Amended 28 of 1992 s. 3)

(c) (Repealed 28 of 1992 s. 3)

(2A) A licensee shall cause his licence to be displayed at all times in a conspicuous position at his place of business. (Added 28 of 1992 s. 3)

(2B) Where a licensee operates an employment agency at more than one place of business, he shall designate which place of business is the main location and shall obtain a duplicate licence for each branch location and cause the duplicate licence to be displayed at all times in a conspicuous position at the branch location. (Added 28 of 1992 s. 3)

(2C) Where a licensee operates an employment agency at more than one location using different names, the agencies shall be deemed to be separate entities and he shall obtain a separate licence for each name used. (Added 28 of 1992 s. 3)

(3) (Repealed 28 of 1992 s. 3)

(4) Subject to section 53, a licence issued under subsection (1) shall be valid for 12 months after the date on which it is issued.

(5) The Commissioner may, upon application in such manner as may be prescribed, renew a licence issued under subsection (1).

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 53

Refusal to issue, or revocation of, licences VerDate:06/30/1997

(1) The Commissioner may refuse to issue or renew a licence, or may revoke a licence, if he is satisfied on reasonable grounds-

(a) that the name under which the employment agency is operated or is intended to be operated-

(i) is identical with the name of another employment agency which is being, or has been, carried on by another person; or

(ii) so nearly resembles the name of another employment agency as to be likely to deceive the public;

(b) that the employment agency is being, or is likely to be, used for unlawful or immoral purposes; or

(c) that the person operating, or intending to operate, the employment agency-

(i) is an undischarged bankrupt;

(ii) has, within the preceding 5 years, been convicted of an offence against the person of a child, young person or woman or of an offence involving membership of a triad society, fraud, dishonesty or extortion;

(iii) has knowingly furnished to the Commissioner any false or misleading information in connection with his application for the issue or renewal of the licence;

(iv) has contravened any provision of this Part or any regulation made under section 62; or

(v) is not, for any other reason, a fit and proper person to operate an employment agency.

(2) The Commissioner shall, if he refuses to issue or renew a licence or revokes a licence, within 14 days after such refusal or revocation, notify the applicant or licensee in writing of the grounds for such refusal or revocation.

(3) Any person aggrieved by a decision of the Commissioner taken in respect of him under subsection (1) may, within 28 days after he is notified under subsection (2), appeal to the Administrative Appeals

Board. (Replaced 6 of 1994 s. 35)

(4) (Repealed 6 of 1994 s. 35)

(5) The licensee shall, if the Commissioner refuses to renew or revokes his licence under subsection (1),-

(a) within 28 days after he is notified under subsection (2); or

(b) if he has appealed under subsection (3), within 14 days after he withdraws or abandons the appeal or he is notified of the Administrative Appeals Board's dismissal of the appeal, deliver the licence, and every copy thereof, to the Commissioner.
(Replaced 6 of 1994 s. 35)

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 54

Commissioner's power of exemption VerDate:06/30/1997

(1) Subject to subsection (2), the Commissioner may, upon application in such manner as may be prescribed, exempt an employment agency from obtaining a licence under section 52, subject to such conditions as he may specify, if he is satisfied that the employment agency is non-profit making and should, in the public interest, be so exempted.

(2) (Repealed 28 of 1992 s. 4)

(3) The Commissioner shall issue to any person exempted under subsection (1) a certificate of exemption.

(4) A certificate of exemption issued under subsection (3) shall-

(a) be in a form determined by the Commissioner; (Replaced 28 of 1992 s. 4)

(b) specify the place of business of the employment agency in respect of which it is issued; and

(c) specify any conditions subject to which it is issued.

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 55

Withdrawal of exemption VerDate:06/30/1997

(1) The Commissioner may, at any time, withdraw an exemption granted under section 54 if he is satisfied that the employment agency has ceased to be non-profit making or should not be so exempted in the public interest.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), the grounds on which the Commissioner may withdraw an exemption shall include mutatis mutandis the grounds contained in section 53(1) on which he may refuse to issue or renew a licence or revoke a licence.

(3) Where the Commissioner withdraws his exemption from any person under subsection (1) he shall notify such person in writing of the grounds for such withdrawal.

(4) The holder of a certificate of exemption shall, within 14 days after he is notified under subsection (3) of the withdrawal of the Commissioner's exemption, deliver the certificate of exemption, and every copy thereof, to the Commissioner.

(5) No appeal shall lie under this Part against the decision of the Commissioner to withdraw an exemption granted to an employment agency.

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 56

Maintenance and delivery to the Commissioner of prescribed registers, records and returns VerDate:06/30/1997

(1) A licensee shall-

(a) maintain a record of-

(i) all job applicants registered with his employment agency; and

(ii) job applicants who, at the time of registration, were not residents of Hong Kong and who were placed in employment in Hong Kong by his employment agency, containing the person's name, address, Hong Kong Identity Card number or, in the case of a non-resident, passport number and citizenship, fee and commission received, date of employment and name and address of employer; and (Replaced 28 of 1992 s. 5)

(b) keep such records available for inspection at the place of business of the employment agency by the Commissioner, or by any public officer authorized by him in that behalf, at all reasonable times. (Amended 28 of 1992 s. 5)

(2) A licensee shall, within such time as may be prescribed, deliver to the Commissioner such returns in respect of the employment agency as may be prescribed.

(3) The records referred to in subsection (1) shall be retained by the licensee for a period of not less than 12 months after the expiration of each accounting year of the employment agency concerned. (Amended 28 of 1992 s. 5)

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 57

Prohibited acts in respect of employment agencies VerDate:06/30/1997

A licensee shall not, directly or indirectly-

(a) receive from any person on account of having obtained, or in connection with obtaining or seeking to obtain, employment for that person-

(i) any reward of any kind; or

(ii) any payment or other advantage in respect of expenses or otherwise, except the prescribed commission; (Replaced 87 of 1975 s. 2. Amended 28 of 1992 s. 6)

(b) share with any person, other than another licensee or a bona fide partner or shareholder in his employment agency, the prescribed commission which he is permitted to charge and receive; or (Amended 87 of 1975 s. 2; 28 of 1992 s. 6)

(c) enter, except with the written permission of the Commissioner, into an agreement, express or implied, with any employer whereby-

(i) the employer undertakes to employ only persons who seek employment through the licensee's employment agency; and

(ii) the licensee agrees to pay or give to the employer some form of material benefit.

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 58

Inspection of places of business of licensed or exempted employment agencies VerDate:06/30/1997

The Commissioner, and any public officer authorized by him in that behalf may-

(a) enter and inspect without a warrant at any reasonable time the place of business of an employment agency;

(b) require the production of, inspect, examine or take copies of any record or other document relating to an employment agency; (Amended 28 of 1992 s. 7)

(c) require any person who operates, manages or assists in the management of an employment agency to furnish such information or particulars relating to the employment agency as he may specify; and

(d) make such other inquiries from any other person connected or associated with the employment agency as he thinks fit.

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SECT 59

Investigation of suspected offences VerDate:06/30/1997

(1) If the Commissioner, any public officer authorized by him in that behalf or any police officer not below the rank of inspector suspects on reasonable grounds that there is in any premises or place evidence of an offence under this Part he may-

(a) enter and search without a warrant any such premises (other than domestic premises) at any reasonable time; and

(b) require the production of, seize, detain and remove any article, record or other document which may be evidence of an offence under this Part. (Amended 28 of 1992 s. 7)

(2) A magistrate may, if he is satisfied by information on oath that there may be found in any domestic premises any evidence of an offence under this Part, issue a warrant authorizing the Commissioner, any public officer authorized in that behalf by the Commissioner or any police officer not below the rank of inspector to enter and search the domestic premises at any reasonable time.

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SCHEDULE 1
CONTINUOUS EMPLOYMENT VerDate:06/30/1997

[section 3]

1. (a) The provisions of this Schedule are to ascertain whether or not any contract of employment is a "continuous contract" for the purposes of this Ordinance.

(b) In the case of a contract of employment existing at the commencement of this Ordinance, such period of employment next preceding the date of commencement of the Ordinance as may be necessary shall be taken into account in order to ascertain whether or not the contract of employment is a continuous contract.

2. Subject to the following provisions, where at any time an employee has been employed under a contract of employment during the period of 4 or more weeks next preceding such time he shall be deemed to have been in continuous employment during that period.

3. (1) For the purposes of paragraph 2, no week shall count unless the employee has worked for 18 hours or more in that week, and in determining whether he has worked in any hour the provisions of sub-paragraph (2) shall apply.

(2) If in any hour the employee is, for the whole or part of the hour-

(a) incapable of work in consequence of sickness or injury; provided that any such incapability in excess of 48 hours is supported by a certificate issued by a registered medical practitioner or registered dentist; or (Amended 5 of 1995 s. 11)

(b) absent from work in circumstances such that, by law, mutual arrangement or the custom of the trade, business or undertaking, he is regarded as continuing in the employment of his employer for any purpose, then, save as provided in paragraph 4, that hour shall count as an hour in which he has worked.

4. Where an employee is absent from work for the whole or part of any hour-

(a) because of a strike (which is not illegal) in which he takes part; or

(b) because of a lock-out by his employer, that hour shall not count as an hour in which he has worked, but the continuity of his period of employment shall not be treated as broken by any such absence.

5. If a trade, business or undertaking is transferred from one person to another, the period of employment of an employee in the trade, business or undertaking at the time of the transfer shall count as a period of employment with the transferee, and the transfer shall not break the continuity of the period employment.

6. For the purposes of this Schedule, any reference to hours in which an employee has worked shall mean hours in which he has worked for his employer whether or not the hours were worked under the same or another contract of employment with that employer and whether or not they were consecutive hours. (Replaced 41 of 1990 s. 23)

7. In this Schedule, unless the context otherwise requires-
"lock-out" (é-%å») and "strike" (ç½·å·¥), respectively, have the meanings assigned to them in the Trade Unions Ordinance (Cap 332);
"week" (æ~ÿæœÿ) means a week ending with Saturday.
(Amended 5 of 1970 s. 9; 71 of 1970 s. 6; 41 of 1990 s. 23)
"lock-out" (é-%å») and "strike" (ç½·å·¥)

PROCEDURE FOR APPREHENSION OF ABSCONDING EMPLOYER VerDate:06/09/2000

Adaptation amendments retroactively made - see 56 of 2000 s. 3

PART I

1. In this Part, the wages and moneys described in section 67(1)(a) and (b) are referred to as "the debt". (Amended 32 of 2000 s. 48)

2. An application under section 67 shall be as in Form 1 in Part II.

3. If a District Judge, after making such investigation as he considers necessary in respect of an application made under section 67, is satisfied that there is probable cause for believing that the employer is about to leave Hong Kong with intent to evade payment of the debt, he may issue a warrant as in Form 2 in Part II ordering that the employer be apprehended and brought before a District Judge to show cause why the employer should not be required to give security in accordance with paragraph 5. (Amended 48 of 1984 s. 32)

4. If an employer who is brought before a District Judge in accordance with a warrant issued under paragraph 3 shows cause why he should not be required to give security in accordance with paragraph 5, the warrant shall be discharged and the employer shall be released.

5. (1) If an employer who is brought before a District Judge in accordance with a warrant issued under paragraph 3 does not show cause why he should not be required to give security in accordance with this paragraph, the District Judge may make an order requiring the employer to enter a bond, in accordance with sub-paragraph (3), for his appearance before a District Judge whenever called upon until he has paid to the employee the full amount of the debt.

(2) If the employer offers, in lieu of entering a bond under sub-paragraph (1), to secure the payment to the employee of the full amount of the debt by any other arrangement, the District Judge may accept such other arrangement as security for the payment to the employee of the full amount of the debt in lieu of the bond.

(3) A bond entered under sub-paragraph (1)-

(a) shall be in favour of the employee;

(b) shall be as in Form 3 in Part II;

(c) shall be for such sum, not exceeding the amount of the debt, as the District Judge may order; and

(d) shall be a bond with such number of sureties, approved by the District Judge, as the District Judge may order.

6. If an employer complies with an order made under paragraph 5(1), or secures the payment to the employee of the full amount of debt by any other arrangement under paragraph 5(2), the warrant issued under paragraph 3 shall be discharged and the employer shall be released.

7. If an employer fails to comply with an order made under paragraph 5(1), a District Judge may commit him to prison until the order is complied with or until the expiration of 3 months from the date of committal, whichever event occurs first.

8. (1) On the application of the employer, or of any surety for a bond entered under paragraph 5, a District Judge, if he is satisfied that any of the conditions specified in sub-paragraph (2) have been fulfilled, shall order as may be appropriate-

- (a) that any warrant issued under paragraph 3 be discharged;
- (b) that the employer, if apprehended or brought before a District Judge under paragraph 3, or committed to prison under paragraph 7, be released;
- (c) that any bond entered under paragraph 5 shall be void (notwithstanding the conditions thereof); and
- (d) that the employer be released from any arrangement made under paragraph 5(2).

(2) The conditions referred to in sub-paragraph (1) are-

- (a) that the debt has been satisfied in full or has been abandoned;
- (b) that no proceedings have been brought within 14 days after the application under section 67 to recover any part of the debt from the employer;
- (c) that no proceedings brought to recover the debt or any part of the debt from the employer have been prosecuted diligently;
- (d) that all proceedings brought to recover the debt or any part of the debt from the employer have been finally struck out or dismissed.

9. (1) Any surety for a bond entered under paragraph 5 may at any time apply to a District Judge to be discharged from his obligation under the bond.

(2) On receipt of an application under sub-paragraph (1), the District Judge shall call upon the employer to appear before a District Judge.

(3) On the appearance of the employer before the District Judge, the District Judge shall order the surety by whom the application under sub-paragraph (1) is made to be discharged from his obligation under the bond, and shall order the employer to provide another surety or sureties, approved by the District Judge, for the bond.

(4) If an employer is ordered under sub-paragraph (3) to provide an approved surety or sureties for a bond, the provisions of paragraphs 6 and 7 shall apply as if the order were an order made under paragraph 5(1).

10. No fees shall be payable to the District Court in respect of or in connection with an application made under section 67 or under paragraph 8 or 9.

EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SCHEDULE 3
DEATH OF EMPLOYER OR OF EMPLOYEE VerDate:06/30/1997

[section. 31M]

DEATH OF EMPLOYER

1. This Part shall have effect in relation to an employee where his employer (in this Part referred to as "the deceased employer") dies.
2. Section 31J shall not apply to any change whereby the ownership of the business, for the purposes of which the employee was employed by the deceased employer, passes to a personal representative of the deceased employer.
3. Where, by virtue of section 31L(1), the death of the deceased employer is to be treated for the purposes of Part VA of this Ordinance as a termination by him of the contract of employment, the employee shall nevertheless not be treated for these purposes as having been dismissed by the deceased employer if-

(a) his contract of employment is renewed by a personal representative of the deceased employer, or he is re-engaged under a new contract of employment by such a personal representative; and

(b) the renewal or re-engagement takes effect not later than 4 weeks after the death of the deceased employer.

4. Where, by reason of the death of the deceased employer, the employee is treated for the purposes of Part VA of this Ordinance as having been dismissed by him, he shall not be entitled to a severance payment in respect of that dismissal if a personal representative of the deceased employer has made to him an offer in writing to renew his contract of employment, or to re-engage him under a new contract, so that in accordance with the particulars specified in the offer the renewal or re-engagement would take effect not later than 4 weeks after the death of the deceased employer and either-

(a) the provisions of the contract as renewed, or of the new contract, as the case may be, as to the capacity and place in which he would be employed, and as to the other terms and conditions of his employment, would not differ from the corresponding provisions of the contract as in force immediately before the death; or

(b) if, in accordance with the particulars specified in the offer, those provisions would differ (wholly or in part) from the corresponding provisions of the contract as in force immediately before the death, the offer constitutes an offer of suitable employment in relation to that employee, and (in either case) the employee has unreasonably refused that offer.

5. For the purposes of paragraph 4-

(a) an offer shall not be treated as one whereby the provisions of the contract as renewed, or of the new contract, as the case may be, would differ from the corresponding provisions of the contract as in force immediately before the death of the deceased employer by reason only that the personal representative would be substituted as the employer for the deceased employer; and

(b) no account shall be taken of that substitution in determining whether the refusal of the offer was unreasonable.

6. Whereby virtue of section 31L(1) the death of the deceased employer is to be treated as a termination by him of the contract of employment, any reference in subsection (2) of that section to section 31D(2) shall be construed as including a reference to paragraph 3.

7. Where by virtue of paragraph 3 the employee is treated as not having been dismissed by reason of a renewal or re-engagement taking effect after the death of the deceased employer, then-

(a) in determining, for the purposes of section 31B(1), whether he has been employed under a continuous contract for the requisite period, the interval between the death and the date on which the renewal or re-engagement takes effect shall count as a period of employment with the personal representative of the deceased employer, if apart from this paragraph it would not count for that purpose as such a period of employment; and

(b) in computing the period specified in section 31B(1), the continuity of the employee's period of employment shall be treated as not being broken by any week which falls within that interval.

8. For the purposes of the application, in accordance with section 31B(3), of Part VA of this Ordinance in relation to an employee who was employed as a domestic servant in, or in connection with, a private household, any reference to a personal representative in this Part of this Schedule shall be construed as including a reference to any person to whom, otherwise than in pursuance of a sale or other disposition for valuable consideration, the management of the household has passed in consequence of the death of the deceased employer.

9. Subject to this Part of this Schedule, in relation to an employer who has died-

(a) any reference in Part VA of this Ordinance to the doing of anything by, or in relation to, an employer shall be construed as including a reference to the doing of that thing by, or in relation to, any personal representative of the deceased employer; and

(b) any reference in Part VA of this Ordinance to a thing required or authorized to be done by, or in relation to, an employer shall be construed as including a reference to anything which, in accordance with any provision of Part VA of this Ordinance as modified by this Part of this Schedule (including sub-paragraph (a)), is required or authorized to be done by, or in relation to, any personal representative of his.

10. Where by virtue of Part VA of this Ordinance, as modified by this Part of this Schedule, a personal representative of the deceased employer is liable to pay a severance payment, or part of a severance payment, and that liability had not accrued before the death of the deceased employer, it shall be treated for all purposes as if it were a liability of the deceased employer which had accrued immediately before his death.

PART II

DEATH OF EMPLOYEE

11. Where an employer has given notice to an employee to terminate his contract of employment, and before that notice expires the employee dies, Part VA of this Ordinance shall apply as if the contract had been duly terminated by the employer by notice expiring on the date of the employee's death.

12. Where an employer has given notice to an employee to terminate his contract of employment, and has offered to renew his contract of employment, or to re-engage him under a new contract, and-

(a) the employee dies without having either accepted or refused the offer; and

(b) the offer has not been withdrawn before his death, subsection (2) or (as the case may be) subsection (3) of section 31C shall apply as if, for the words "the employee has unreasonably refused", there were substituted the words "it would have been unreasonable on the part of the employee to refuse".

13. In relation to the making of a claim by a personal representative of a deceased employee who dies before the end of the period of 1 month beginning with the relevant date, section 31N shall apply with the substitution, for the words "3 months", of the words "6 months". (Amended 76 of 1985 s. 9)

14. Subject to this Part of this Schedule, in relation to an employee who has died, any reference in Part VA of this Ordinance to-

(a) the doing of anything by, or in relation to, an employee shall be construed as including a reference to the doing of that thing by, or in relation to, any personal representative of the deceased employee; and

(b) a thing required or authorized to be done by, or in relation to, an employee shall be construed as including a reference to anything which, in accordance with Part VA of this Ordinance as modified by this Part of this Schedule (including sub-paragraph (a)), is required or authorized to be done by, or in relation to, any personal representative of his.

15. Any right of a personal representative of a deceased employee to a severance payment, where that right had not accrued before the employee's death, shall devolve as if it had accrued before his death. (Third Schedule added 67 of 1974 s. 6)

DEATH OF EMPLOYER-LONG SERVICE PAYMENTS VerDate:06/30/1997

[section 31ZC]

1. This Schedule shall have effect in relation to an employee where his employer (in this Schedule referred to as "the deceased employer") dies.
2. Section 31Z shall not apply to any change whereby the ownership of the business, for the purposes of which the employee was employed by the deceased employer, passes to a personal representative of the deceased employer.
3. Where, by virtue of section 31ZB, the death of the deceased employer is to be treated for the purposes of Part VB of this Ordinance as a termination by him of the contract of employment, the employee shall nevertheless not be treated for these purposes as having been dismissed by the deceased employer if-
 - (a) his contract of employment is renewed by a personal representative of the deceased employer, or he is re-engaged under a new contract of employment by such a personal representative; and
 - (b) the renewal or re-engagement takes effect not later than 4 weeks after the death of the deceased employer.
4. Where by virtue of paragraph 3 the employee is treated as not having been dismissed by reason of a renewal or re-engagement taking effect after the death of the deceased employer, then-
 - (a) in determining, for the purposes of section 31R or 31RA, whether he has been employed under a continuous contract for the requisite number of years of service, the interval between the death and the date on which the renewal or re-engagement takes effect shall count as a period of employment with the personal representative of the deceased employer, if apart from this paragraph it would not count for that purpose as such a period of employment; and

(b) in computing the number of years of service specified in section 31R or 31RA, the continuity of the employee's period of employment shall be treated as not being broken by any week which falls within that interval.

5. For the purposes of the application, in accordance with section 31RB, of Part VB of this Ordinance in relation to an employee who was employed as a domestic servant in, or in connection with, a private household, any reference to a personal representative in this Schedule shall be construed as including a reference to any person to whom, otherwise than in pursuance of a sale or other disposition for valuable consideration, the management of the household has passed in consequence of the death of the deceased employer.

6. Subject to this Schedule, in relation to an employer who has died-

(a) any reference in Part VB of this Ordinance to the doing of anything by, or in relation to, an employer shall be construed as including a reference to the doing of that thing by, or in relation to, any personal representative of the deceased employer; and

(b) any reference in Part VB of this Ordinance to a thing required or authorized to be done by, or in relation to, an employer shall be construed as including a reference to anything which, in accordance with any provision of Part VB of this Ordinance as modified by this Schedule

(including sub-paragraph (a)), is required or authorized to be done by, or in relation to, any personal representative of his.

7. Where by virtue of Part VB of this Ordinance, as modified by this Schedule, a personal representative of the deceased employer is liable to pay a long service payment, or part of a long service payment, and that liability had not accrued before the death of the deceased employer, it shall be treated for all purposes as if it were a liability of the deceased employer which had accrued immediately before his death. EMPLOYMENT ORDINANCE - SCHEDULE 8

EMPLOYMENT PROTECTION VerDate:06/30/1997

[section 32G]

DEATH OF EMPLOYER OR OF EMPLOYEE

DEATH OF EMPLOYER

1. If an employer dies after his employee's right of action has arisen under Part VIA of this Ordinance on employment protection but before the adjudication of the claim, the claim shall be actionable by the employee against the personal representative of the deceased employer.
2. In relation to the death of an employer, a reference to renewal or re-engagement by the employer in section 32B or 32C shall be construed as including a reference to renewal or re-engagement by any personal representative of the deceased employer, and a reference to an offer made by the employer shall be construed as including a reference to an offer made by any personal representative of the deceased employer.

PART II

DEATH OF EMPLOYEE

3. If an employee dies after his right of action has arisen under Part VIA of this Ordinance on employment protection but before the adjudication of the claim, the claim shall be actionable by a personal representative of the deceased employee.
4. Where an employer has given notice to an employee to terminate his contract of employment and before that notice expires the employee dies, Part VIA of this Ordinance on employment protection shall apply as if the contract had been terminated by the employer by notice expiring on the date of the employee's death.
5. Where an employer has given notice to an employee to terminate his contract of employment and has offered to renew his contract of employment or to re-engage him under a new contract and-
 - (a) the employee dies without having either accepted or refused that offer; and
 - (b) the offer has not been withdrawn by the employer before the death of the employee,section 32C(1) or (2), as the case may be, shall apply as if, for the words "the employee has unreasonably refused", there were substituted the words "it would have been unreasonable on the part of the employee to refuse".
